Further amend said bill, Page 26, Section B, Line 4, by inserting immediately after all of said line the following:

"Section C. Sections 302.291 and 302.292, RSMo 1994, are repealed and two new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 302.291 and 302.292, to read as follows:

302.291. 1. The director, having good cause to believe that an operator is incompetent or unqualified to retain his license, after giving ten days' notice to such person in writing by [registered] certified mail directed to his present known address, may require him to submit to an examination as prescribed by the director. Upon conclusion of the examination, the director may allow the licensee to retain his license, may deny, suspend or revoke the license of the licensee, or may issue to the examinee a license subject to restrictions as provided in section 302.301. If an examination indicates a condition that potentially impairs safe driving, the director, in addition to action with respect to the license, may require the licensee to submit to further periodic examinations. The refusal or neglect of the [operator] licensee to submit to [such] an examination within thirty days after the date of such notice shall be [ground] grounds for suspension or revocation of his license by the director, an associate circuit or circuit court.

2. The examination provided for in subsection 1 of this section may include, but is not limited to, a written test and tests of driving skills, vision, highway sign recognition and mental acuity and, if appropriate, a physical and/or mental examination as provided in section 302.173.

3. The director shall have good cause to believe that an operator is incompetent or unqualified to retain his license on the basis of a report by a law enforcement officer, a physician licensed under chapter 334, RSMo, or any family members who have reached the age of twenty-one or court appointed legal guardians. The report must state that the person reasonably and in good faith believes the driver cannot safely operate a motor vehicle. The report must be based upon personal observation or physical evidence which shall be described in the report, or upon an investigation of a law enforcement officer. The report shall be a written declaration in the form prescribed by the department of revenue and shall contain the name, address, telephone number, and signature of the person making the report.

4. Any physician licensed under chapter 334, RSMo, may report to the department any patient diagnosed as having a disorder or condition that may prevent such person from safely operating a motor vehicle. Such report shall state the diagnosis and whether the condition is permanent or temporary. The existence of a physician-patient relationship shall not prevent the making of a report by a physician.

5. Any person who makes a report in good faith pursuant to this section shall be immune from any civil liability that otherwise might result from making the report. Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 610, RSMo, to the contrary, all reports made and all medical records reviewed and maintained by the department of revenue under this section shall be kept confidential except for litigation purposes upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction or in a review of the director's action pursuant to section 302.311.

6. The department of revenue shall keep records and statistics of reports made and actions taken against driver's licenses under this section.

7. The department of revenue shall, in consultation with the medical advisory board established under section 302.292, develop a standardized form and provide guidelines for the reporting of cases and for the examination of drivers under this section. The guidelines shall be published and adopted as required for rules and regulations under chapter 536, RSMo. The department of revenue shall also adopt rules and regulations as necessary to carry out the other provisions of this section. The director of revenue shall provide health care professionals and law enforcement officers with information about the procedures authorized in this section.

8. Any person who knowingly violates a confidentiality provision of this section or who knowingly permits or encourages the unauthorized use of a report or reporting person's name in violation of this section shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor and shall be liable for damages which proximately result.

9. Any person who intentionally files a false report under this section shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor and shall be liable for damages which proximately result.

10. All appeals of license revocations, suspensions and restrictions shall be made within thirty days after mailing of the notice as required pursuant to section 302.311.

302.292. 1. In order to advise the director of revenue on medical criteria for the reporting and examination of drivers with medical impairments, a medical/vision advisory board is hereby established within the department of revenue. The board shall be composed of three members appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, from a list of qualified candidates submitted to the governor by the director of the department of revenue. The members of the board shall be licensed physicians and residents of this state. Of the original appointees, one shall serve for a term of two years and two shall serve for terms of four years. Subsequent appointees shall each serve for a term of four years or until their successors are appointed and approved. Any vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment for the remainder of the term. The members of the board shall receive no compensation for their services and shall not hire any staff personnel but shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties. After the first full year of operation of the advisory board, the board shall meet no more than four times per year.

2. No civil or criminal action shall lie against any member of the medical/vision advisory board of the department of revenue who acts in good faith in advising the department under the provisions of this chapter. Good faith shall be presumed on the part of members of the medical/vision advisory board in the absence of a showing of fraud or malice.

3. The department of public safety shall establish within its division of highway safety an educational program pertaining to the reporting of impaired drivers. The program shall use department of revenue licensing offices, publications and cooperation with community organizations to inform the public and health care professionals of the following:

(1) Problems involving impaired drivers on Missouri roadways;

(2) The procedures for reporting motor vehicle drivers who because of physical limitations or mental acuity are unable to operate a motor vehicle in a safe manner; and

(3) The availability of alternative transportation to persons who are unable to drive because of physical or mental disabilities.

4. The department of public safety shall adopt rules and regulations as required under chapter 536, RSMo, as necessary to carry out its duties under this section.

Section D. The provisions of this act shall become effective on January 1, 1998.".

302.535. 1. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the department may file a petition for trial de novo by the circuit court. The burden of proof shall be on the state to adduce the evidence. Such trial shall be conducted pursuant to the Missouri rules of civil procedure and not as an appeal of an administrative decision pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo. The petition shall be filed in the circuit court of the county where the arrest occurred. The case shall be decided by the judge sitting without a jury. The presiding judge of the circuit court may assign a traffic judge, pursuant to section 479.500, RSMo 1994, a circuit judge or an associate circuit judge to hear such petition.

2. The filing of a petition for trial de novo shall not result in a stay of the suspension or revocation order. But upon the filing of such petition, a restricted driving privilege for the limited purpose of driving in connection with the petitioner's [business, occupation, employment, or] formal program of secondary, postsecondary or higher education shall be issued by the department if the person's driving record shows no prior alcohol related enforcement contact during the immediately preceding five years. Further, upon the filing of such petition, a restricted driving privilege for the limited purpose of driving in connection with the petitioner's business, occupation or employment shall be issued by the department. Such limited driving privilege shall terminate on the date of the disposition of the petition for trial de novo.

3. In addition to the limited driving privilege as permitted in subsection 2 of this section, the department may upon the filing of a petition for trial de novo issue a restricted driving privilege for the limited purpose of driving in connection with the petitioner's business, occupation, employment, or formal program of secondary, postsecondary or higher education. In determining whether to issue such a restrictive driving privilege, the department shall consider the number and the seriousness of prior convictions and the entire driving record of the driver.

4. Such time of restricted driving privilege pending disposition of trial de novo shall be counted toward any time of restricted driving privilege imposed pursuant to section 302.525. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prevent a person from maintaining his restricted driving privilege for an additional sixty days in order to meet the conditions imposed by section 302.540 for reinstating a person's driver's license.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

O God, You've surprised us! Just when we were becoming comfortable with the warm weather, getting our spring fever excuses prepared, and pulling out the summer clothes, you hide away the warmth and blow a cold breath across the skies - a gentle reminder that change is a constant - a constant in the weather and in our lives. Let his gentle reminder help us remember never to settle into something so firmly that we fail to be open to a new direction. Let it remind us that change and new vision are always just around the corner.

As the issues here are debated, discussed, and decided, may these representatives be open to voices other than their own. May their ears hear opinions other than their own. May they be guided by your wisdom, rather than that of the media or popular polls. In all things, Gracious God, reassure them of your providential care. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 28

WHEREAS, in recent years, the rail transportation service provided by Amtrak between St. Louis and Kansas City has been jeopardized by low levels of patronage which have made the service unprofitable to Amtrak; and

WHEREAS, in order to rectify this situation, the State of Missouri has begun providing subsidies to Amtrak in order to keep the service from St. Louis to Kansas City operating at its current level; and

WHEREAS, on March 15, 1997, Amtrak refused to allow members of the Jackson County Wheelmen, a local bicycle club, and other area cyclists, to take their bicycles on the train from Independence to Sedalia, where they wished to ride on the KATY Trail; and

WHEREAS, Amtrak currently has regulations in place forbidding bicycles to be rolled on board its passenger trains in the Midwest due to concerns about space; and

WHEREAS, bicyclists have proposed two viable solutions to this problem of storage, the first of which involves hanging bicycles from a removable metal rack attached to the overhead luggage rack in the areas of the trains set aside for wheelchair riders, and the second of which involves disassembling the bicycles and placing them in a special bag to be stored inside the luggage rack; and

WHEREAS, cyclists wishing to board Amtrack in Missouri with their bicycles are seeking to take advantage of the Amtrak line's close proximity to the KATY Trail, where Amtrack could provide convenient access for cyclists to the trail at Sedalia, Jefferson City, Hermann, and Washington; and

WHEREAS, were Amtrak to revise its policy to allow cyclists to board passenger trains in the Midwest with their bicycles, the new service could substantially increase Amtrack's low usage and thereby save taxpayers money in the future; and

WHEREAS, the Missouri Department of Natural Resources has estimated that 300,000 people used the KATY Trail last year, a large portion of whom were cyclists; and

WHEREAS, last year, the State of Missouri subsidized Amtrak in the amount of $3.6 million, and Amtrack is again seeking a substantial state subsidy in 1997; and

WHEREAS, as a condition for the continued subsidization of Amtrack with taxpayer money, the company should make every reasonable effort to meet the needs and desires of its customers and potential customers as a means toward operating with a greater degree of efficiency and profitability:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives of the Eighty-ninth General Assembly, the Senate concurring therein, hereby call upon Amtrack to modify its current policy in order to allow cyclists to bring their bicycles on board its passenger trains in Missouri; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Amtrak.

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

FIFTY-FIRST DAY, Thursday, April 10, 1997

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

There's snow on the ground in April, the U.N. is arguing over parking tickets, and our electronic devices appear to be out to get us - O Lord, this world is full of disorderly chaos. And yet, we believe you are a God who can bring order out of chaos. Instill in us faith to trust that you have this world in control even if we don't understand it. Reassure our doubts and help us look at life without the filters of technology and cyberspace. Comfort our fears when things happen that are beyond our control. O God, you who created the heavens and the earth, are yet surely in charge of this planet we call home. Let us trust you in all things.

And now give these representatives safe passage to their homes through still another messy weather weekend, and bring them back to this place to complete the tasks at hand. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Hilary Yates, Casey Harper, Daniel Clark, Tiffany Stokes, Kayla Strodtman, Amanda Simmons, Tony Lackland, Eric Endsley, Stephanie Brooks, Echo Collins, James Vogt, Shawn Russo, Jed Battson, Alex Copeland, Chris Hedrick, Kate McGiness, Angel Bishop, Spencer Garner, Ashley Jackson, Arthur Swank, Katie Busch, David Scherer, Tom Applewhite, Alex Kerlick, Jertoria Phillips, Troy Dalton, Daryl Channel, Dlal Ibrahim, Stephanie Brooks, Todd Lazar, James Vogt, Shawn Russo, Matthew Amick, Jennifer Mills, Tabitha Rawlins, Brandon Rakes and Raquel Constantino.

Certification shall consist of the most recent fiscal year financial statement submitted by a station to the corporation for public broadcasting. The grants shall be divided into two categories, an annual basic service grant and an operating grant. The basic service grant shall be equal to thirty-five percent of the total amount and shall be divided equally among the public radio stations receiving grants. HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 29

WHEREAS, the United States Congress has begun deliberations that will lead to reauthorization of the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1991 (ISTEA); and

WHEREAS, reauthorization of this federal transportation law is critical to the continued maintenance and development of an efficient and safe transportation system for Missouri citizens; and

WHEREAS, an efficient and safe transportation system is essential to the economic prosperity of Missouri citizens; and

WHEREAS, Missouri receives significantly less in federal highway funding than its percentage share of payments into the federal Highway Trust Fund; and

WHEREAS, the General Accounting Office has determined that current federal highway funding formulas do not adequately account for state highway needs and uses outdated factors for distributing funds among the states; and

WHEREAS, reauthorization of ISTEA presents a critical opportunity to develop equitable and fair highway distribution formulas and ensure appropriate return of federal highway moneys to Missouri; and

WHEREAS, adequate support for the National Highway System is necessary to provide mobility and economic benefits to Missouri citizens and to ensure that Missouri is connected to the rest of the nation with a modern transportation system:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Missouri House of Representatives of the Eighty-ninth General Assembly, the Senate concurring therein, that the Congress of the United States should enact, prior to expiration of ISTEA, legislation to reauthorize a strong intermodal transportation system; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Congress of the United States, in reauthorization of ISTEA, should correct the inequitable federal highway funding formulas; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Congress of the United States should develop federal highway funding formulas that recognize the pressing highway needs of Missouri and return an increased share of federal highway moneys to Missouri; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Congress of the United States should ensure that such funding formulas provide at least a ninety-five percent return on Missouri's contribution to the federal Highway Trust Fund; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Transportation, to which was referred SB 131, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass by Consent.

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Utilities Regulation, to which was referred HCR 24, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 24

WHEREAS, the members of the Missouri General Assembly are deeply concerned about the large increases in home heating bills that the citizens of Missouri have experienced this winter; and

WHEREAS, the price charged by unregulated suppliers for natural gas has increased this winter at an unprecedented rate, resulting in gas bills for many families that are two or three times higher than last year's bills; and

WHEREAS, many constituents of the Missouri legislature are undergoing significant financial hardship as a direct result of having to pay dramatically increased heating costs; and

WHEREAS, heat for one's residence in the winter, like food and shelter, is a basic necessity of life that must be made available and accessible to all citizens at affordable rates; and

WHEREAS, the companies that produce and supply natural gas to local gas distribution companies in Missouri are primarily out-of-state large oil companies which are no longer regulated by the federal government; and

WHEREAS, local regulated gas distribution companies in Missouri do not make a profit from the commodity price of gas, but pass those costs to consumers under the regulatory supervision of the Missouri Public Service Commission:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Missouri House of Representatives of the Eighty-ninth General Assembly, the Senate concurring therein, hereby request the United States Congress to expediently conduct federal hearings and investigations to fully determine all factors responsible for the rapidly rising cost of the natural gas commodity and to ascertain the degree to which this rising cost is necessary as implemented by unregulated suppliers of natural gas; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Missouri General Assembly further requests the United States Congress to act upon the information obtained from these hearings and investigations by establishing appropriate public policies to protect constituents of Missouri and other states from uncontrolled increases in the natural gas commodity in the future; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for each member of the Missouri Congressional delegation.

FOR

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, telecommunications services and energy services and sources are vital to the economic vitality and well-being of the state of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, there is a nationwide trend toward deregulation of telecommunications services and energy services and sources which will likely create competitive markets and make available new services and customer choices; and

WHEREAS, the state and political subdivisions have imposed taxes, fees and other assessments on various telecommunications and energy services, and such taxes vary widely based upon locality and, within a locality, such taxes may vary widely between increasingly related and competitive services, such as telephone and cable television; and

WHEREAS, there is currently a nationwide trend toward competition in the production, distribution and sale of energy, including electricity and other energy sources, and this trend has both potential benefits and potential adverse effects on energy producers, distributors, retailers, customers and the citizens of this state; and

WHEREAS, ensuring adequate and affordable telecommunications services and energy services and sources will necessitate a fair and equitable structure of taxes across different telecommunications and energy services and across different regions of the state; and

WHEREAS, the issue of whether governmental entities should expend public resources to compete with private telecommunications and energy entities should be explored:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Eighty-Ninth General Assembly, the House of Representatives concurring therein, that a joint legislative study committee of the General Assembly be created to be composed of five members of the Senate, to be appointed by the President Pro Tem of the Senate, and five members of the House of Representatives, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House, and that said committee be authorized to function during the interim between the first and second regular sessions of the Eighty-Ninth General Assembly; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that said committee conduct an in depth study and make appropriate recommendations concerning financial, legal, social, taxation, environmental, technological and economic issues of telecommunications and energy services taxation, competition between governmental entities and private telecommunication entities, the need to maintain and sufficiently fund emergency telephone services ("911") in light of the increased use of cellular phones and any other issues the committee deems relevant; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that said committee conduct an in depth study and make appropriate recommendations concerning financial, legal, social, taxation, environmental, technological and economic issues of deregulation and increasing competition in energy production, distribution and sale including consideration of the effects on residential customers, small business customers, large business customers, utility shareholders and other stakeholders and any other issues the committee deems relevant; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the committee prepare a report, together with its recommendations for any legislative action it deems necessary for submission to the General Assembly prior to the commencement of the Second Regular Session of the Eighty-Ninth General Assembly; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the committee may solicit any input and information necessary to fulfill its obligations from the Missouri Public Service Commission, the Department of Economic Development, the Division of Energy within the Department of Natural Resources, the Office of Public Counsel, political subdivisions of this state, telecommunications and energy service providers, energy utilities and representatives of all telecommunications and energy customer groups; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Committee on Legislative Research, Senate Research and House Research shall provide such legal, research, clerical, technical and bill drafting services as the committee may require in the performance of its duties; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the actual and necessary expenses of the committee, its members and any staff personnel assigned to the committee incurred in attending meetings of the committee or any subcommittee thereof shall be paid from the Joint Contingent Fund.

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

FIFTY-SECOND DAY, Monday, April 14, 1997

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"All things are possible with God." (Mark 10:17)

Tiger Woods is making history today well beyond the world of golf. We rejoice in his many records, the first African-American (whose mother is Asian) to win the Masters, 12 years after the color barrier was broken in that competition, youngest winner ever at 21, with the lowest score of 270 and 12 strokes less than the second place winner.

Gracious God, we give thanks for this good news of accomplishment, and pray that it will continue to reduce barriers and heal some of the racism and ethnic hatred which too often today raise their ugly heads in our world, both here and overseas. We also give thanks that young people of every race and color can take pride in knowing that dreams can come true and there is hope. May that spirit give courage to those in this chamber who have a nobler vision for this State and its people. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Patty Long, Jamie McDaniel, Jillian Presko, Nathan Williams, Zach Dees, Zach Krebs, Eric Thomure, Mariah Bock, Sarah Fowler, Mandy Truelove, Mallery DeLisle, Trey Edwards, Candace Davis, Justin Santangelo and Jessica Hedgpeth.

The Journal of the fifty-first day was approved as corrected.

House Resolution No. 571

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives suspend the work of creating laws in order to recognize the dedicated men and women of Missouri's law enforcement community; and

Whereas, officers from various local sheriff departments, city police agencies, the Missouri Highway Patrol, the Missouri Water Patrol, and the Missouri National Guard's 1139th military police company are to be commended for their selfless, untiring and courageous efforts to capture triple-murder suspect Alis Ben Johns; and

Whereas, known to authorities as a skilled woodsman, a convicted felon, and a substantial threat to public safety, Alis Ben Johns became the subject of one of the most intense manhunts in Missouri history following the murders of Thomas Stewart of Dixon in September, 1996; Leonard Voyles of Richland in February, 1997; and Wilma Bragg of Newton County in March, 1997; and

Whereas, the round-the-clock search for Alis Ben Johns was concentrated in the dense woodland area of mid-Missouri where hundreds of brave officers knowingly put themselves in harm's way in order to protect the public; and

Whereas, at approximately 7:17 p.m. on April 7, 1997, two Missouri State Water Patrol officers, Captain William S. "Bill" Swineburg and Patrolman Erik Gottman, courageously apprehended Alis Ben Johns and his female companion, Beverly A. Guehrer-McComb, at a vacant house just northeast of Warsaw; and

Whereas, the capture of Alis Ben Johns brought to conclusion a search that endured for more than five months and that involved local law enforcement officers from a three-county area as well as professionals from the Highway Patrol, the Water Patrol, and the National Guard; and

Whereas, the overwhelming success of this perilous mission could not have been realized without the commitment, professionalism, self-sacrifice, and valor demonstrated by those individuals who have been entrusted with the responsibility of protecting the public through the fulfillment of duty as law enforcement personnel:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Eighty-ninth General Assembly, unanimously join in expressing our deepest gratitude to all the heroic law enforcement officers involved with the successful search and ultimate capture of Alis Ben Johns and Beverly Guehrer-McComb for their unparalleled commitment to securing the safety of all Missourians; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for Captain Bill Swineburg and Patrolman Erik Gottman of the Missouri State Water Patrol; for Benton County Sheriff Glenn Spencer; for the Missouri Highway Patrol; for each of the sheriff's offices and local police departments in Pulaski, Newton, and Benton counties; and for the Missouri National Guard's 1139th Military Police Company.

On motion of Representative Scott, Rule 63 was suspended and House Resolution No. 571 was adopted.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Committee on Budget, Chairman Lumpe reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Budget, to which was referred HCR 21, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 21

WHEREAS, the lack of adequate office space for legislators and staff along with the lack of adequate facilities to conduct hearings, meetings and other legislative functions at our State Capitol has been an issue of major and growing concern for many years; and

WHEREAS, in 1995, Sverdrup Facilities Corporation and its consultants published a comprehensive State Office Space Study and Master Plan after having been requested by the State of Missouri Office of Administration to develop a strategic plan for accommodating space needs for non-institutional offices statewide through Fiscal Year 2004; and

WHEREAS, one of the primary goals of this strategic plan was to address those issues which inhibit the efficient delivery of government services to the citizens of the state; and

WHEREAS, in this State Office Space Study and Master Plan, a specific reference to the State Capitol declared "The State Capitol Building, with the exception of the Senate and House chambers, is suffering from many ill-conceived renovations and overcrowding", and "Many spaces are poorly ventilated, lighted and appointed creating an uncomfortable and unsophisticated office environment"; and

WHEREAS, also in this office space study, it was suggested that the current Missouri Department of Transportation (MODOT) Headquarters Building could be made available to relieve Capitol overcrowding with the construction of a new office building for MODOT; and

WHEREAS, remodeling the existing MODOT Headquarters Building to serve as a "Capitol Annex" is the most viable long-term solution to the problem of Capitol overcrowding that has yet been submitted, however, the earliest that the final implementation of this solution would be realized would, in all likelihood, be the year 2004; and

WHEREAS, one short-term measure that has been implemented to address the problem of inadequate facilities at the Capitol is the appropriation of significant sums of money for the renovation of existing offices that are much too small and crowded to begin with, and which can gain relatively little in the way of becoming more livable and functional after the expenditure of this money; and

WHEREAS, legislators and their staff deserve to work in a safe, comfortable, and adequately-spaced office environment in order to provide the most efficient and effective service possible for the people of Missouri; and legislators, staff, and private citizens are entitled to conduct state business in a safe and comfortable environment when meeting in the various hearing rooms and committee rooms within our State Capitol; and

WHEREAS, expedient measures need to be implemented to provide effective short-term solutions for the problem of overcrowding at the State Capitol; and

WHEREAS, Section 8.460, Revised Statutes of Missouri, subsection 1, states "The board of public buildings may build an office building in the City of Jefferson to house state offices which are presently located in rented quarters within the county of Cole, and they shall remove as many offices from the State Capitol building as the general assembly deems necessary to provide adequate space for its members; and

WHEREAS, Section 8.015, Revised Statutes of Missouri, gives Senate Administration exclusive control over the Senate Chamber, the Senate Committee rooms, the offices of the members of the Senate at the State Capitol, and all other rooms and offices of the State Capitol designed for or assigned by the Board of Public Buildings to the use of the members and officers of the Senate, and states that "No use of any of said quarters other than by the Senate, its members or officers shall be made except with the written consent of the Senator or officer occupying the office rooms and upon the order of the accounts committee"; and

WHEREAS, Section 8.017, Revised Statutes of Missouri, gives the House Committee on Accounts, Operation and Finance exclusive control over the House Chamber, the House Committee rooms, the offices of the members of the House at the State Capitol, and all other rooms and offices of the State Capitol designed for or assigned by the Board of Public Buildings to the use of the members and officers of the House, and states that "No use of any of said quarters other than by the House, its members or officers shall be made except with the written consent of the Representative or officer occupying the office rooms and upon the order of the accounts committee":

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives of the Eighty-ninth General Assembly, the Senate concurring therein, hereby declare all office rooms, committee rooms, hearing rooms, and all other rooms and facilities within the State Capitol building to be under the domain and control of the Missouri General Assembly through the House Accounts, Operation and Finance Committee and Senate Administration, and further assert the right to reserve any and all of these rooms and facilities for the exclusive use of legislators and legislative staff; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the General Assembly hereby calls upon the Office of Administration to take steps to bring about the expedient re-location of the Missouri Department of Transportation so that the current MODOT Headquarters building may be renovated to serve as an annex to the State Capitol; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the House Committee on Accounts, Operation and Finance and Senate Administration be directed to coordinate efforts with the Office of Administration to bring about the expedient re-location of the Missouri Department of Transportation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare properly inscribed copies of this resolution for the Commissioner of Administration, the House Committee on Accounts, Operation and Finance, and for Senate Administration.

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

FIFTY-THIRD DAY, Tuesday, April 15, 1997

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"Destruction and violence are before me: strife and contention arise." (Habakkuk 1:3)

Last night was the 85th anniversary of the sinking of the Titanic on its first voyage from Belfast, Northern Ireland to New York. There have been many other disasters since then, accidents and those caused by human malice such as the Oklahoma City bombing whose anniversary occurs on Saturday.

Gracious God, we know that many question your existence or your plan or the claim that you love us in the face of those major disasters and the many ills which afflict us in our personal lives.

We pray for a stronger gift of faith that believes in your power over death and sickness and over the moral evil that we do. Strengthen our hope and the belief that there must be a better world and that until we reach it, adversity strengthens us and develops our character if we allow your power to be at work in us, and points to your better world where pain and destruction do not enter in.

We ask a special blessing on the young women here to Bring Your Daughter To Work Day - lovely tax deductions on this April 15 filing deadline.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: B. J. Further amend said bill, Page 6, Section 115.125, Line 10, by deleting all of said line and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "required by this section may [be delivered], with the prior approval of the election authority receiving the notice, be accepted by facsimile transmission prior to 5:00 p.m. on the tenth Tuesday prior to the election, provided that the original"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 6, Section 115.125, Lines 14 and 15, by deleting the words "or by 5:00 p.m. on the Friday following the notice deadline set forth in this section" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "from the date of the facsimile transmission"; and

Further amend said bill, Page 38, Section 116.260, Line 1, by inserting before all of said line the following:

"116.130. 1. The secretary of state may send copies of petition pages to election authorities to verify that the persons whose names are listed as signers to the petition are registered voters. Such verification may either be of each signature or by random sampling as provided in section 116.120, as the secretary shall direct. If copies of the petition pages are sent to an election authority for verification, such copies shall be sent not later than one week after the petition is submitted if the election authority is to verify each signature and not later than three weeks after the petition is submitted if verification is to occur by random sampling as provided in section 116.120. Each election authority shall check the signatures against voter registration records in [his] the election authority's jurisdiction, but the election authority shall count as valid only the signatures of persons registered as voters in the county named in the circulator's affidavit. If the election authority is requested to verify the petition by random sampling, such verification must be completed [within fifteen days] and certified not later than two weeks from the date the election authority receives the petition from the secretary of state. If the election authority is to verify each signature, such verification must be completed and certified to the secretary of state by 5:00 p.m. on the eleventh Tuesday prior to the election.

Failure of a voter to give [his] the voter's correct congressional district number shall not by itself be grounds for not counting [his] the voter's signature.

3. The election authority shall return the copies of the petition pages to the secretary of state with annotations regarding any invalid or questionable signatures which [he] the election authority has been asked to check by the secretary of state. [He] The election authority shall verify the number of pages received for that county, and also certify the total number of valid signatures of voters from each congressional district which [he] the election authority has been asked to check by the secretary of state.

4. The secretary of state is authorized to adopt rules to insure uniform, complete, and accurate checking of petition signatures either by actual count or random sampling. No rule or portion of a rule promulgated under the authority of this section shall become effective unless it has been promulgated pursuant to the provisions of section 536.024, RSMo.

5. After a period of three years from the time of submission of the petitions to the secretary of state, the secretary of state, if [he] the secretary determines that retention of such petitions is no longer necessary, may destroy such petitions or return them to the person submitting them upon written request from such person. Returned petitions shall be stamped by the secretary of state to indicate that such petitions are no longer valid.

116.150. 1. After the secretary of state makes [his] a determination on the sufficiency of the petition and if [he] the secretary finds it sufficient, [he] the secretary shall issue a certificate not later than the eleventh Friday prior to the election setting forth that the petition contains a sufficient number of valid signatures to comply with the Constitution of Missouri and with this chapter.

2. The secretary of state shall issue a certificate only for a petition approved pursuant to section 116.332. If the secretary of state finds the petition insufficient, [he] the secretary shall issue a certificate stating the reason for the insufficiency.

116.240. Not later than the [eighth] tenth Tuesday prior to an election at which a statewide ballot measure is to be voted on, the secretary of state shall send each election authority a certified copy of the legal notice to be published. The legal notice shall include the date and time of the election and a sample ballot.".

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

FIFTY-FOURTH DAY, Wednesday, April 16, 1997

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

God of Heaven and Earth, on this day of business, help us keep the long view of our work and our world. Help us to see that it is better to fail in a cause that will ultimately succeed than to succeed in a cause that will ultimately fail.

On this day following our rendering to Caesar what is Caesar's, let us use wisdom, discretion and discernment as we manage, not only our own money, but the money entrusted to us by the people of Missouri.

May we give ourselves to a good day of work in which good things get done. We know that a different world cannot be built by indifferent people. Keep us from apathy and let us be alert to the potential for truth and rightdoing that lies in each hour of the day.

Most importantly, may the representatives work above party and personality, beyond time and circumstances, for the good of those they serve. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Clay Burnett, Claire Segar, Page Hinz, Allie Hicks, Julia Fine, Liana Presser, Chelsea Page, Katharine Whitener, Brooke Ambler, Andy MacNaughton, Nathan Manning, Jacob Weatherford, Meagan Edington, Allison Funke, Michael Mallett, Cassandra Dixon, Cody Newcomer, Misty Rowe, Meghan Kohnen, Alicia Martineau, Eric Hillberg and Chris Fry.

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

FIFTY-FIFTH DAY, Thursday, April 17, 1997

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Steve Altheide.

Dear Almighty Lord God & Gracious Heavenly Father,

I am thankful for this beautiful morning that you have given each of us and for the gift of another day. I am thankful for the opportunity to be here in this place today and I am grateful for the lives of each one of these representatives here. I ask that You guide each one of us today and that You help us to be alert to Your presence all around us. Your Word tells us that all wisdom comes from You and that if we but ask, You will grant us the wisdom necessary every day that we need to make wise decisions in every area of life, and so I ask that You grant each one here the wisdom that we need. These men and women before me have such awesome responsibilities. Help them to be sensitive to that and to Your offer of guidance for every decision. Your Word tells us that You raise up people for positions of leadership and that even those in government do Your bidding and hold their positions with Your permission. Your Word also tells us to pray for all who are in authority, and so I do that just now, asking You to assist each one here with the work that is before them.

Father, I want to acknowledge, with the Apostle Paul, that You are the God who made the world and everything in it...and that from one man You made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the earth and You determined the times set for them and the exact places where they should live. You did this so that men would seek You and reach out for You and find You, and You are not far from each one of us. For in You we live and move and have our being. Therefore since we are Your offspring, help us to understand Your nature and appropriately worship and serve You. For You have promised that You have set a day when You will judge the world with justice by the Man You have appointed, and You will judge the world with justice by the Man You have appointed, and You gave us proof of this by raising Him from the dead!

And today, it's in His name that I pray for Your blessing and guidance. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY, Monday, April 21, 1997

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

Baruch ata Adonai, Elohaynu melech ha-olam (Praised be Thou, O Lord our God, King of the universe), for you are the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. You are the one true God, mindful of each one of us. Bless our assembly in this place today. As our Jewish brothers and sisters prepare to observe the days of Passover, there is celebration at the deliverance from bondage. May we ALL celebrate deliverance - deliverance from the bondage of prejudice, from the bondage of small-mindedness, from the bondage of self-will and self-centeredness.

As these representatives take on the business of these final days of this session, give them wisdom; grant them courage; sustain them in faith. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Micha Strathman, Scott Reynolds, Jenny Jackson, Stacie Youree and Josh Keil.

The Journal of the fifty-fifth day was approved as corrected.

The Journal of the fifty-sixth day was approved as printed.

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

FIFTY-EIGHTH DAY, Tuesday, April 22, 1997

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Kelly Parker.

This morning I read from the book of Proverbs, Chapter 29, Verse 18:

"Where there is no vision the people perish; but he that keepeth the law, happy is he."

Let us pray...

Dear Heavenly Father, we are here today to do the work of the people of the Great State of Missouri. It is this work, over which we ask your divine guidance and blessing.

Help us, Heavenly Father, develop a positive vision for the people of this great state.

Give us the fortitude and perseverance to transform our vision of the future into laws to effect that vision.

And most importantly, give us the endowment to keep the law of God as we make the law of man. For this, in itself, is a vision we should endeavor to impart to those we represent. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the fifty-seventh day was approved as corrected.

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

FIFTY-NINTH DAY, Wednesday, April 23, 1997

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

O Lord of Justice and Right, as we come into these halls this morning, we are aware of events that have occupied the media - the Oklahoma City Bombing Trial, and now the events in Lima, Peru. There is a mixture of emotions - do we applaud the success while people have died? Or do we condemn the violence even though the hostages were freed? Sometimes the answers just aren't so black and white.

O Gracious One, help these representatives as they work today to be aware of the significance of the actions they pursue. Let them think carefully about the lives their legislation will affect. Most of all, guide them with wisdom that they might ultimately trust in You in all that they do. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Darryl Bird, David Burke, Amber England, Jamala Garmon, Darrel Haynes, Thomas Holley, Cobret Joe, Deidra King, Adrian Liggins, Deron Moore, Adam Schafer, Garmeisha Terry, Tinesha Warren, Tamika Wiseman, Christina Wolford, Tyler Borgfield, Max Brand, Matthew Cowan, Georgia Cowson, Alexis DePree, Kylena Fleming, Chele Ford, Megan Hempstead, Victoria Idom, Equilla Jones, Anthony McGuinn, Adrion Moore, Terrance Smith, Heather Dennis, Danny Wise, Andrea George, Jodi Anderson, Andrienne Cunningham, Betty Theas, Justien Tignor, Joel Lewis, Megan McKinzie, Sarah Hamilton, Crystal Bennett, Ashley Riley, Andrew Berry, Lauren Brown, Matthew Price, Danelle Bierman, Jack Fries, Steve Procter, Nat Defenbaugh, Shannon Crader, Audrey Williams, Suzanne Johnson, Dennis Hartsell, George Henggeler, Brandi Wilmes, Julie Blair, David Klamm, Lacie Mires, Katie Owens, Michelle Page, Lacey Dowell, Bryan Kuhler, and Nicholas Schnetzler.

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

SIXTIETH DAY, Thursday, April 24, 1997

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

"But they who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint." (Isaiah 40:31 RSV)

O Lord, as days grow longer and more exhausting, as the work begins to pull at our feet like molasses, let us remember the words of Isaiah - waiting upon you, and may our strength be renewed.

We keep in mind today those who are dealing with the devastation of flood waters. We are only too familiar with the shock of disbelief and the grief of loss associated with flood. Be present to them as they begin the process of re-building their lives.

And now watch over these representatives as they go into this weekend. Give there rest and bring them back safely for the next week's work. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Gus Kempa, Kendra Owen, Jessica Griffin, Kyle Fetick, Audra Armstrong, Mario Carillo, Sheena Johnson, Tara Lively, Hillary Roberts, Alisha Blevins, Lindsay Monaco, Lisa Monaco, Kelly Burmeister, Kassi Kelly, Khiara Ray, Owen Metzler, Jeff Howell, Julia Biegel, Morgan Sheiderer, Chad Kendrick, Mike McClellan, Hilary Lyle, Kristy Burmeister and Charlie Puch.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

Mr. Speaker: I am instructed by the Senate to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate has taken up and adopted SCR 24.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 24

To suspend and revoke CSR 80-2.013

WHEREAS, The Department of Natural Resources filed notice of proposed rulemaking for 10 CSR 80-2.013 on October 10, 1996, and filed the order of rulemaking with the Committee on Administrative Rules on March 24, 1997 with notice of intent to file with the Secretary of State on April 23, 1997.

WHEREAS, the proposed rule requires an applicant for a solid waste disposal permit to conduct two separated public meetings known as "public awareness and community involvement session" at an estimated cost of $10,000 to the applicant.

WHEREAS, Sections 260.200 to 260.241 specifies the requirements for an application for a permit which not only does not require the applicant to conduct public meetings but rather requires the Department to hold such public hearings; and,

WHEREAS, the sole authority delegated to the Department to propose rules is specifically limited in Section 260.225. 1. (3) to "such rules and regulations relating to solid waste management systems"; and,

WHEREAS, the General Assembly has not delegated any rulemaking authority to the Department concerning the requirements for the application for a permit, but rather, the General Assembly has preempted the requirements for the application process which does not include the holding of public sessions and the attendant cost related thereto; and,

WHEREAS, the Committee on Administrative Rules has found that the Department has exceeded its rulemaking authority and recommends that the General Assembly act to permanently suspend and/or revoke 10 CSR 80-2.013

NOW THEREFORE, the General Assembly finds that:

1. 10 CSR 80-2.013 relates to the permit application process and purports to add additional requirements that are not provided in Sections 260.200 to 260.241; and;

2. The General Assembly has preempted the application process and has specified all of the requirements for obtaining a permit; and,

3. The Department has no authority to increase the requirements for obtaining a permit;

4. Section 260.225 limits the authority of the Department to issue rules to those rules related to the solid waste management systems and no authority has been delegated to the department to issue rules which create additional, substantive requirements necessary to apply for a permit.

NOW THEREFORE, the 89th General Assembly, upon concurrence of a majority of the members of the Senate and a majority of the members of the House of Representatives, hereby permanently suspends and revokes 10 CSR 80-2.013; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of the foregoing be submitted to the Secretary of State so that the Secretary of State may publish in the Missouri Register, as soon as practicable, notice of the suspension or revocation as provided in Chapter 536.024; and,

FURTHER, that a properly inscribed copy be presented to the Governor in accordance with Article IV, Section 8 of the Missouri Constitution.

In which the concurrence of the House is respectfully requested.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 7

WHEREAS, telecommunications services and energy services and sources are vital to the economic vitality and well-being of the state of Missouri; and

WHEREAS, there is a nationwide trend toward deregulation of telecommunications services and energy services and sources which will likely create competitive markets and make available new services and customer choices; and

WHEREAS, the state and political subdivisions have imposed taxes, fees and other assessments on various telecommunications and energy services, and such taxes vary widely based upon locality and, within a locality, such taxes may vary widely between increasingly related and competitive services, such as telephone and cable television; and

WHEREAS, there is currently a nationwide trend toward competition in the production, distribution and sale of energy, including electricity and other energy sources, and this trend has both potential benefits and potential adverse effects on energy producers, distributors, retailers, customers and the citizens of this state; and

WHEREAS, ensuring adequate and affordable telecommunications services and energy services and sources will necessitate a fair and equitable structure of taxes across different telecommunications and energy services and across different regions of the state; and

WHEREAS, the issue of whether governmental entities should expend public resources to compete with private telecommunications and energy entities should be explored:

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

SIXTY-FIRST DAY, Monday, April 28, 1997

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"Do not say to your neighbor, 'Go and come again, tomorrow I will give it' when you have it with you." (Proverbs 3:28).

President Clinton and former presidents and their wives have launched a bi-partisan national program to promote volunteerism at all levels in the nation under the leadership of General Colin Powell.

Today we rejoice that there are so many people who, in so many ways, often barely noticed, volunteer for political campaigns, religious, and not-for-profit and other charitable causes. We thank you, gracious God, for those who volunteer out of a generous spirit and we ask that this new initiative will inspire others to consider such work. We regret that many organizations have lost what used to be a reliable pool of volunteers in recent decades because of changing economic and family circumstances, particularly among women. We pray also that government will do what government should do, and that volunteer work will supplement that work, not be expected to replace it by default, and that the private and charitable sector will benefit from this new publicity to continue the long tradition of selfless giving with volunteers and monetary contributions and donated services. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the sixtieth day was approved as corrected.

210.109. 1. [By January 1, 1995,] The division of family services shall establish a child protection system in [five] eight areas of the state selected by the division.

2. The child protection system shall seek to promote the safety of children and the integrity and preservation of their families by conducting investigations or family assessments in response to reports of child abuse or neglect. The system shall endeavor to coordinate community resources and provide assistance or services to children and families identified to be at risk, and to prevent and remedy child abuse and neglect.

3. In implementing the child protection system, the division shall:

(1) Receive and maintain reports pursuant to the provisions of subsections 1 and 2 of section 210.145;

(2) Forward the report to the appropriate division staff who shall determine, through the use of protocols developed by the division, whether an investigation or the family assessment and services approach should be used to respond to the allegation. The protocols developed by the division shall give priority to ensuring the well-being and safety of the child. The division may investigate any report, but shall conduct an investigation involving reports, which if true, would constitute a violation of section 565.050, RSMo, if the victim is a child less than eighteen years of age, a violation of section 566.030 or 566.060, RSMo, if the victim is a child less than eighteen years of age, or any other violation of chapter 566, RSMo, if the victim is a child less than eighteen years of age and the perpetrator is twenty-one years of age or older, a violation of section 567.050, RSMo, if the victim is a child less than eighteen years of age, a violation of section 568.020, 568.030, 568.045, 568.050, 568.060, 568.080, or 568.090, RSMo, a violation of section 573.025 or 573.035, RSMo, or an attempt to commit any such crimes;

(3) Communicate reports of child abuse or neglect to the appropriate local office, pursuant to the provisions of subsection 4 of section 210.145;

(4) Contact the appropriate law enforcement agency upon receipt of a report of a violation of section 565.020, 565.021, 565.023, 565.024 or 565.050, RSMo, if the victim is a child less than eighteen years of age, a violation of section 566.030 or 566.060, RSMo, if the victim is a child less than eighteen years of age, or any other violation of chapter 566, RSMo, if the victim is a child less than eighteen years of age and the perpetrator is twenty-one years of age or older, a violation of section 567.050, RSMo, if the victim is a child less than eighteen years of age, a violation of section 568.020, 568.030, 568.045, 568.050, 568.060, 568.080, or 568.090, RSMo, a violation of section 573.025 or 573.035, RSMo, or an attempt to commit any such crimes, and shall provide such agency with a detailed description of the report received. The appropriate law enforcement agency shall assist the division in the investigation or provide the division, within a reasonable time, an explanation in writing detailing the reasons why it is unable to assist;

(5) Cause a thorough investigation or family assessment and services approach to be initiated within twenty-four hours of receipt of the report from the division, except in cases where the sole basis for the report is educational neglect. If the report indicates that educational neglect is the only complaint and there is no suspicion of other neglect or abuse, the investigation or family assessment and services approach shall be initiated within seventy-two hours of receipt of the report. If the report indicates the child is in danger of serious physical harm or threat to life, an investigation or family assessment and services approach shall include direct observation of the subject child within twenty-four hours of the receipt of the report;

(6) Investigate, if it is determined that an investigation is necessary, in compliance with the provisions of section 210.145;

(7) Assess, in cases where the family assessment and services approach is used, any service needs of the family. The assessment of risk and service needs shall be based on information gathered from the family and other sources;

(8) Provide services, in cases in which the family assessment and services approach is used, which are voluntary and time-limited unless it is determined by the division based on the assessment of risk that there will be a high risk of abuse or neglect if the family refuses to accept the services. The division shall identify services for families where it is determined that the child is at high risk of future abuse or neglect. The division shall thoroughly document in the record its attempt to provide voluntary services and the reasons these services are important to reduce the risk of future abuse or neglect to the child. If the family continues to refuse voluntary services or the child needs to be protected, the division may commence an investigation;

(9) Commence an immediate investigation if at any time during the family assessment and services approach the division determines that an investigation, as delineated in sections 210.109 to 210.183, is required. The division staff who have conducted the assessment may remain involved in the provision of services to the child and family;

(10) Document at the time the case is closed, the outcome of the family assessment and services approach, any service provided and the removal of risk to the child, if it existed;

(11) Conduct a family assessment and services approach on reports initially referred for an investigation, if it is determined that a complete investigation is not required. If law enforcement officers are involved in the investigation, they shall provide written agreement with this decision. The reason for the termination of the investigative process shall be documented in the record;

(12) Assist the child and family in obtaining services, if at any time during the investigation it is determined that the child or any member of the family needs services;

(13) Collaborate with the community to identify comprehensive local services and assure access to those services for children and families where there is risk of abuse or neglect;

(14) Contact the person who made the report under section 210.115, pursuant to the provisions of section 210.145;

(15) Forward any evidence of malice or harassment to the local prosecuting or circuit attorney as required by the provisions of section 210.145;

(16) Provide services as required by section 210.145;

(17) Use multidisciplinary services as required by section 210.145;

(18) Update the information in the information system within thirty days of an oral report of abuse or neglect. The information system shall contain, at a minimum, the determination made by the division as a result of the investigation or family assessment and services approach, identifying information on the subjects of the report, those responsible for the care of the subject child and other relevant dispositional information. The division shall complete all investigations or family assessments within thirty days, unless good cause for the failure to complete the investigation or assessment is documented in the information system. If the investigation or family assessment is not completed within thirty days the information system shall be updated at regular intervals and upon the completion of the investigation. The information in the information system shall be updated to reflect any subsequent findings, including any changes to the findings based on an administrative or judicial hearing on the matter;

(19) Maintain a record which contains the facts ascertained which support the determination as well as the facts that do not support the determination.

4. By January 1, 1998, the division of family services shall submit documentation to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president pro tem of the senate on the success or failure of the child protection system established in this section. The general assembly may recommend statewide implementation or cancellation of the child protection system based on the success or failure of the system established in this section.

5. The documentation required by subsection 4 of this section shall include an independent evaluation of the child protection system completed according to accepted, objective research principles.".

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

SIXTY-SECOND DAY, Tuesday, April 29, 1997

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"O Lord, you are our potter, we are all the work of your hands." (Is. 64:7).

The national appeal for volunteers which has been launched includes much commentary about the bully pulpit available to the President for rallying the nation around issues.

Gracious God, this morning we ask for the wisdom to recognize the moral influence we all exert in our own way. May we neither exaggerate nor diminish the impact we have on others, nor under-estimate the wide divergence of opinion there exists at this time in the citizenry about what is right, what is wrong, what is tolerable and what is good public policy. We do this knowing that failure and sin are with us and the ideal is yet to be reached by each of us as individuals and by all of us together. May we build consensus with the patience which such construction takes, knowing that You, our God, are the potter in Isaiah's image, we must be open to being molded. May we see ourselves not as isolated units, but as somehow being part of the one fabric, each with a special place and role in making the whole, with personal rights but social responsibilities toward the good of all. There is only so much good we can do in each legislative session, or in any one day of our lives, may we do what is possible and be patient until tomorrow. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

Further amend said bill, Page 6, Section 414.415, Line 12, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"643.310. 1. The commission may, by rule, establish a motor vehicle emissions inspection program [under] pursuant to sections 643.300 to 643.355 for any portion of a nonattainment area located within the area described in subsection 1 of section 643.305, except for any portion of the nonattainment area which is located in a county of the first classification without a charter form of government with a population of less than one hundred thousand inhabitants according to the most recent decennial census, if the commission determines that such motor vehicle emissions inspection program is necessary in that area to comply with the requirements of subsection 1 of section 643.305[, except that no motor vehicle emission inspection program shall be established under this section in any area for which the sale or dispensing of conventional gasoline for use in motor vehicles is prohibited under the federal Clean Air Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7545]. The commission shall ensure that, for each nonattainment area, the state implementation plan established [under] pursuant to subsection 1 of section 643.305 incorporates and receives all applicable credits allowed by the United States Environmental Protection Agency for emission reduction programs in other nonattainment areas of like designation in other states. The commission shall ensure that emission reduction amounts established [under] pursuant to subsection 2 of section 643.305 shall be consistent with and not exceed the emissions reduction amounts required by the United States Environmental Protection Agency for other nonattainment areas of like designation in other states. No motor vehicle emissions inspection program shall be required to comply with subsection 1 of section 643.305 unless the plan established thereunder takes full advantage of any changes in requirements or any agreements made or entered into by the United States Environmental Protection Agency and any entity or entities on behalf of a nonattainment area concerning compliance with National Ambient Air Quality Standards of the federal Clean Air Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7401 et seq., and the regulations promulgated thereunder. The air conservation commission shall request and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to bring, in a court of competent jurisdiction, an action challenging the authority of the United States Environmental Protection Agency to impose sanctions for failure to attain National Ambient Air Quality Standards and failure to provide for required emission reductions under the federal Clean Air Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7401, et seq. The action shall seek to define the required emission reductions and the credits allowed for current and planned emission reductions measures. The air conservation commission shall request and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to bring an action to obtain injunctive relief to enjoin and restrain the imposition of sanctions on the state of Missouri under the federal Clean Air Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7401, et seq., until all actions initiated [under] pursuant to this section have been decided. Provisions of section 307.366, RSMo, to the contrary notwithstanding, the requirements of sections 643.300 to 643.355 shall apply to those areas designated by the commission [under] pursuant to this section in lieu of the provisions of section 307.366, RSMo.

2. The department shall contract with one or more persons to provide any motor vehicle emissions inspection program established [under] pursuant to sections 643.300 to 643.355.

3. The department may purchase the motor vehicle emissions inspection facilities pursuant to appropriations specifically provided for that purpose. The department may lease, sublease or license the facilities to the contractor or contractors for the purpose of fulfilling the obligations of the contract for the motor vehicle emissions inspection program.

4. The inspection program shall satisfy the following criteria:

(1) There shall be an adequate number of stations to ensure that no more than twenty percent of all persons residing in an affected nonattainment area reside farther than five miles from the nearest inspection station, and consideration shall be given to employment, locations and commuting patterns when selecting the locations of the stations;

(2) There shall be an adequate number of inspection lanes at each facility so that no more than five percent of all persons having an inspection are required to wait more than fifteen minutes before the inspection begins;

(3) The days and daily hours of operation shall include at least those hours specified by the department, which shall include, at a minimum, twelve continuous hours of operation on all weekdays excepting federal holidays, and six continuous hours of operation on all Saturdays excepting federal holidays;

(4) The emissions inspection program shall include a simulated on-road emissions inspection component, including pressure and purge tests, which satisfies the requirements established by regulation of the United States Environmental Protection Agency and may include a visual inspection component;

(5) The inspection stations shall be test-only stations and shall not offer motor vehicle emissions repairs, parts or services of any kind;

(6) No person operating or employed by an emissions inspection station shall repair or maintain motor vehicle emission systems or pollution control devices for compensation of any kind.

5. The commission, the department of economic development and the office of administration shall, in cooperation with the minority business advocacy commission, select the contractor or contractors to provide an inspection program which satisfies the minimum requirements of this section in accordance with the requirements of section 33.752, RSMo, and chapter 34, RSMo. The commission, the office of administration and the department of economic development, in cooperation with the minority business advocacy commission shall ensure adequate minority business participation in the selection of the contractor or contractors to provide an inspection program [under] pursuant to this section. The commission, the office of administration and the department of economic development shall ensure adequate participation of Missouri businesses in the selection of the contractor or contractors to provide an inspection program [under] pursuant to this section.

6. With approval of the commission and [under] pursuant to rules adopted by the commission, an organization whose members are motor vehicle dealers or leasing companies may establish one or more additional emissions inspection facilities, which may be either mobile or stationary, to be used solely to inspect motor vehicles owned and held for sale or lease by the members of the organization. With approval of the commission and under rules adopted by the commission, any person operating a fleet of five hundred or more motor vehicles may establish one or more additional emissions inspection facilities, which may be either mobile or stationary, to be used solely to inspect motor vehicles owned or leased and operated by the person establishing the facility. The inspections performed in facilities established [under] pursuant to this subsection shall be performed by a contractor selected by the commission [under] pursuant to this section and the contractor performing such inspections shall be responsible solely to the department and shall satisfy all applicable requirements of sections 643.300 to 643.355.

7. Any person who owns Missouri analyzer system emission inspection equipment as defined by rule, used to provide emissions inspections [under] pursuant to section 307.366, RSMo, at a facility located in an area in which an emissions inspection program has been established [under] pursuant to sections 643.300 to 643.355 may, within twelve months of the implementation of an emissions inspection program [under] pursuant to sections 643.300 to 643.355, sell such equipment, to the department of natural resources at current market value as established by an independent appraisal provided that the equipment is fully functional and has been maintained according to all applicable manufacturer's specifications and procedures. The department shall purchase such equipment using funds appropriated for that purpose from the Missouri air emission reduction fund. House Committee Substitute

House Resolution No. 548

Whereas, the divorce process in Missouri, as elsewhere, is broken and needs fixing; and

Whereas, children are too often treated like property while parents fight over money, assets and custody; and

Whereas, the most volatile issues in divorce are who will care for, who will control and who will pay for the children; and

Whereas, our current, often combative atmosphere makes it more difficult for divorcing couples to reach a settlement and develop a cooperative relationship once the divorce is final; and

Whereas, angered by the process, parties too often resist paying child support and make it difficult for the noncustodial parent to have access to the children; and

Whereas, every night four out of ten children in America will go to bed in a home absent of a father and the social consequences of father absence is enormous; and

Whereas, domestic violence is the single greatest cause of injury to women in the United States and any system of family conflict management must protect the physical safety of all parties; and

Whereas, regardless of the level of battle, the negative interactions during divorce can have a lasting, damaging impact on both parties and their children:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Speaker of the House shall appoint an interim committee, made up of seven members of the House of Representatives and two public members, to review Missouri's divorce laws and to bring to the General Assembly legislation that will provide for Missouri families a holistic, comprehensive family law system that provides non-adversarial dispute resolution, counseling, education and related legal services; and

Be it further resolved that this committee's mission will be the welfare of the children and a commitment that whenever possible and appropriate children shall continue to have both parents in their lives.

Committee on Education - Elementary and Secondary, Chairman Stoll reporting:

Mr. Speaker: Your Committee on Education - Elementary and Secondary, to which was referred SCR 23, begs leave to report it has examined the same and recommends that it Do Pass.

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

SIXTY-THIRD DAY, Wednesday, April 30, 1997

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

Gracious God, our day's work is influenced by so many factors. We are public people, in the public eye, and yet there is a part of us that yearns to remain private and secure. But that is sometimes a luxury our positions do not allow. Help us in our faults and failings and reassure us that your forgiveness is readily available to our seeking hearts.

As these representatives take on today's decisions, give them a sense of accomplishment in the good they have done for the children of Missouri. The education and well-being of our children are of the utmost importance as these children grow and become the leaders of tomorrow in this state and across the nation.

We ask your blessing and guidance for our friend, Jackie Hubbard as she leaves for a new job and new adventures - we wish her God speed.

Grant us now a productive day's work and guide our choices and our decisions by your gracious mercy. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Brock Yates, Shalmar Lee, Anthony Fortner, Ruth Herrin, Nick Losciuto, Sean Anderson, Liz Butler and Robert Jennings.

The Journal of the sixty-second day was approved as corrected.

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

SIXTY-FOURTH DAY, Thursday, May 1, 1997

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

Budgets, colleges, prisons, pensions, health care, insurance, education - the list is endless, O Lord. So many areas of financial need, so many concerns about the people of Missouri, so many decisions to make about money. As much as we hate the idea of being consumed with the issue of money, it is a reality we face daily.

Creator and Creative God, guide us to use the money with which we've been entrusted wisely and honestly. Help us fulfill our obligations and promises to those who, out of their hard day's labor, have paid into this state's system. Help us to remember the admonition that it is a happier gift to give than to receive.

Behind all that we do are the faces of people we know and those who are strangers to us - our wives, husbands, and children, the elderly, the physically, emotionally, and mentally challenged, minorities. Some many needs, so many causes - direct our choices that we may find Your path through the maze of the "almighty dollar."

And now bless and protect all those who travel this weekend, bringing them safely back on Monday. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Donald Calder, Mary Collins, Sarah Hudson, Natalie Ellis, Ali Turner, Mark Welker, Blake Tenkhoff, Scott Brueckner, Arron Hutsell, Becky Christian, Margie Anne Louise Wilson, Amanda Michelle Wilson, Jessica Phillips, Gregory Bollasina, Meghan Lohbeck, Caleb Swartz, Lauren McKenna, Lisa Zehnder, Shawn Carlile, Danelle Wisdom, Ashley Marler, Matt Birdsong, Joe Kane, Katie Hart, Steve Marshall, Alicia Roberts, Bradley Melton, Nicole Johnson, Joshua Jennings, Keillan Miller, Matthew Ortiz, Tiffany Mathews, Monika Mello, Joseph Thiel, Paul Reynolds, Alexander Chambliss, Ryan Roth, Amy Stubbs, Cody Arnold, Jeremy Santee, Karl Siebel, Veera Salo, Csilla Szabo, Lisa Zehnder, Jeff Nonnenkamp, Ryan Steinbach and Stephanie Pratte.

Beginning January 1, 1996, the department shall not discharge a child from the custody of the division of youth services before the child completes the length of stay determined by the court in the commitment order unless the committing court orders otherwise. 5. When custody of a child or person seventeen years of age is legally placed in the department of social services or any of its divisions, the department shall immediately submit its proposed treatment plan for such child or person seventeen years of age, as developed pursuant to subdivision (17) of subsection 1 of section 207.020, RSMo, to a professional evaluation team. Such a team shall be composed of a local juvenile officer, a representative of the department, a guardian ad litem, or court appointed special advocate, and where applicable, a school employee. The evaluation team shall develop a long-range permanency treatment plan for each child or person seventeen years of age within thirty days of the date upon which the department was awarded custody. The long-range treatment plan [will] shall include the following components:

(1) Type of placement which will serve the best interest and special needs of a child or person seventeen years of age and provide the least restrictive setting;

(2) Projected length of care needed by the child or person seventeen years of age and the projected cost for providing such care;

(3) Services needed by the child or person seventeen years of age and [his] the child's or person's family to facilitate reunification and the projected cost of such services;

(4) Certification from the division director or designee whether the placement and/or services recommended by the evaluation team are available.

The long-range permanency treatment plan shall be submitted to the court for consideration and approval prior to the court's final entry of a treatment order. In addition, a psychiatric or psychological evaluation shall be considered by the professional evaluation team and shall be submitted to the court for consideration for any child or person seventeen years of age who, in the discretion of the professional evaluation team, [could] may benefit from such an examination. The juvenile court judge may assess the cost of the examination to the family based on [their] the family's ability to pay.

6. In ordering implementation of a permanency treatment plan, the judge shall not order treatment with a specific provider but may reasonably designate the scope and extent of the services to be provided by the department to the child or person seventeen years of age subject to certification by the director of the division or designee that a provider and/or funds are available.

7. The department shall proceed to implement any long-range permanency plan within thirty days of its approval by the court. If the court fails to act upon a long-range permanency treatment plan within fifteen days of its submission by the professional evaluation team, then such plan shall be implemented by the department as if approved by the court and shall remain in effect until otherwise ordered by the court.

8. The department may seek appellate review of any long-range permanency treatment plan [it] the department is required by court order or operation of law to implement.

9. When an assessment has been imposed [under] pursuant to the provisions of subsection 2 or 3 of this section, the assessment shall be paid to the clerk of the court in the circuit where the assessment is imposed by court order, to be deposited in a fund established for the sole purpose of payment of judgments entered against children in accordance with section 211.185.".

Other provisions of law to the contrary notwithstanding, the total amount of all annuities, pensions, or retirement allowances above the amount of six thousand dollars annually provided by any law of this state, the United States, or any other state to any person except as provided in subsection 4 of this section, shall be subject to tax under the provisions of this chapter, in the same manner, to the same extent and under the same conditions as any other taxable income received by the person receiving it. For purposes of this section, annuity, pension, or retirement allowance shall be defined as an annuity, pension or retirement allowance provided by the United States, this state, any other state or any political subdivision or agency or institution of this or any other state. For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1998, for purposes of this section, annuity, pension or retirement allowance shall be defined to include self-employed retirement plans, also known as Keogh plans, annuities from a defined pension plan and individual retirement arrangements, also known as IRAs, as described in the Internal Revenue Code, as well as an annuity, pension or retirement allowance provided by the United States, this state, any other state or any political subdivision or agency or institution of this or any other state.

2. For the period beginning July 1, 1989, and ending December 31, 1989, there shall be subtracted from Missouri adjusted gross income for that period, determined pursuant to section 143.121, the first three thousand dollars of retirement benefits received by each taxpayer:

5. The provisions of subdivisions (1) and (2) of subsection 3 of this section shall apply during all tax years in which the federal Internal Revenue Code provides exemption levels for calculation of the taxability of social security benefits that are the same as the levels in subdivisions (1) and (2) of subsection 3 of this section. 7. The exemptions provided for in this section shall not affect the calculation of the income to be used to determine the property tax credit provided in sections 135.010 to 135.035, RSMo.

The director of the department of social services shall establish a procedure by which, from the beginning of the fiscal year until some point in time later in the fiscal year to be determined by the director of the department of social services, the cumulative amount of tax credits are equally apportioned among all facilities classified as maternity homes. If a maternity home fails to use all, or some percentage to be determined by the director of the department of social services, of its apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time, the director of the department of social services may reapportion these unused tax credits to those maternity homes that have used all, or some percentage to be determined by the director of the department of social services, of their apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time. The director of the department of social services may establish more than one period of time and reapportion more than once during each fiscal year. To the maximum extent possible, the director of the department of social services shall establish the procedure described in this subsection in such a manner as to ensure that taxpayers can claim all the tax credits possible up to the cumulative amount of tax credits available for the fiscal year.

135.600. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall mean:

(1) "Shelter for victims of domestic violence", a facility located in this state which meets the definition of a shelter for victims of domestic violence under section 455.200, RSMo, and which meets the requirements of section 455.220, RSMo;

(2) "State tax liability", in the case of a business taxpayer, any liability incurred by such taxpayer under the provisions of chapter 143, RSMo, chapter 147, RSMo, chapter 148, RSMo, and chapter 153, RSMo, exclusive of the provisions relating to the withholding of tax as provided for in sections 143.191 to 143.265, RSMo, and related provisions, and in the case of an individual taxpayer, any liability incurred by such taxpayer under the provisions of chapter 143, RSMo;

(3) "Taxpayer", person, firm, a partner in a firm, corporation or a shareholder in an S corporation doing business in the state of Missouri and subject to the state income tax imposed by the provisions of chapter 143, RSMo, or a corporation subject to the annual corporation franchise tax imposed by the provisions of chapter 147, RSMo, or an insurance company paying an annual tax on its gross premium receipts in this state, or other financial institution paying taxes to the state of Missouri or any political subdivision of this state under the provisions of chapter 148, RSMo, or an express company which pays an annual tax on its gross receipts in this state pursuant to chapter 153, RSMo, or an individual subject to the state income tax imposed by the provisions of chapter 143, RSMo.

2. A taxpayer shall be allowed to claim a tax credit against the taxpayer's state tax liability, in an amount equal to fifty percent of the amount such taxpayer contributed to a shelter for victims of domestic violence.

3. The amount of the tax credit claimed shall not exceed the amount of the taxpayer's state tax liability for the taxable year that the credit is claimed, and such taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit in excess of fifty thousand dollars per taxable year. However, any tax credit that cannot be claimed in the taxable year the contribution was made may be carried over to the next four succeeding taxable years until the full credit has been claimed.

4. Except for any excess credit which is carried over pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, a taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit unless the total amount of such taxpayer's contribution or contributions to a shelter or shelters for victims of domestic violence in such taxpayer's taxable year is at least one hundred dollars.

5. The director of public safety shall determine, at least annually, which facilities in this state may be classified as shelters for victims of domestic violence. The director of public safety may require of a facility seeking to be classified as a shelter for victims of domestic violence whatever information is reasonably necessary to make such a determination. The director of public safety shall classify a facility as a shelter for victims of domestic violence if such facility meets the definition set forth in subsection 1 of this section.

6. The director of public safety shall establish a procedure by which a taxpayer can determine if a facility has been classified as a shelter for victims of domestic violence, and by which such taxpayer can then contribute to such shelter for victims of domestic violence and claim a tax credit. The cumulative amount of tax credits which may be claimed by all the taxpayers contributing to shelters for victims of domestic violence in any one fiscal year shall not exceed two million dollars.

7. The director of public safety shall establish a procedure by which, from the beginning of the fiscal year until some point in time later in the fiscal year to be determined by the director of public safety, the cumulative amount of tax credits are equally apportioned among all facilities classified as shelters for victims of domestic violence. If a shelter for victims of domestic violence fails to use all, or some percentage to be determined by the director of public safety, of its apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time, the director of public safety may reapportion these unused tax credits to those shelters for victims of domestic violence that have used all, or some percentage to be determined by the director of public safety, of their apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of time. The director of public safety may establish more than one period of time and reapportion more than once during each fiscal year. ## First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

SIXTY-FIFTH DAY, Monday, May 5, 1997

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

God of power, giver of peace, ruler of justice, look with favor today upon this world you have made. Look with favor upon those here today who strive to make this world, this state a better place to live for its citizens.

Whether it's the issue of abortion or water safety, the budget or the security of marriage vows, these legislators have difficult decisions to make each day. They study, debate, and decide on issues that affect people across lines of race, sex, economic status, and political inclinations. Remind them as they work each day that the faces behind the statistics are depending on them to make things better as best they can.

God, as we remember an event that happened so many years ago as the Holocaust swept across the land, we pray that you will be present to the survivors of that terrible event. Be with us as we remember what happened, and as we remember history, may we not be doomed to repeat it.

And now remind these representatives, O Lord of compassion, that your guidance and forgiveness are a constant in our lives. Reassure them of your presence and give them the wisdom they need to make good decisions. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Michael Bialik, Jennifer Lambert, Kristin Smith, Kaci Timmons and Daniel Nolen.

The Journal of the sixty-fourth day was approved as corrected.

Further amend said bill, page 2, section 162.431, line 32, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"163.011. As used in this chapter unless the context requires otherwise:

(1) "Adjusted gross income":

(a) "District adjusted gross income per return" shall be the total Missouri individual adjusted gross income in a school district divided by the total number of Missouri income tax returns filed from the school district as reported by the state department of revenue for the second preceding year;

(b) "State adjusted gross income per return" shall be the total Missouri individual adjusted gross income divided by the total number of Missouri individual income tax returns, of those returns designating school districts, as reported by the state department of revenue for the second preceding year;

(c) "District income factor" shall be one plus thirty percent of the difference of the district income ratio minus one, except that the district income factor applied to the portion of the assessed valuation corresponding to any increase in assessed valuation above the assessed valuation of a district as of December 31, 1994, shall not exceed a value of one;

(d) "District income ratio" shall be the ratio of the district adjusted gross income per return divided by the state adjusted gross income per return;

(2) "Average daily attendance" means the quotient or the sum of the quotients obtained by dividing the total number of hours attended in a term by resident pupils between the ages of five and twenty-one by the actual number of hours school was in session in that term. To the average daily attendance of the school term shall be added the full-time equivalent average daily attendance of summer school students. "Full-time equivalent average daily attendance of summer school students" shall be computed by dividing the total number of hours attended by all summer school pupils by the number of hours required in section 160.011, RSMo, in the school term. For purposes of determining average daily attendance under this subdivision, the term "resident pupil" shall include all children between the ages of five and twenty-one who are residents of the school district and who are attending kindergarten through grade twelve in such district. If a child is attending school in a district other than the district of residence and the child's parent is teaching in the school district or is a regular employee of the school district which the child is attending, then such child shall be considered a resident pupil of the school district which the child is attending for such period of time when the district of residence is not otherwise liable for tuition. Average daily attendance for students below the age of five years for which a school district may receive state aid based on such attendance shall be computed as regular school term attendance unless otherwise provided by law;

(3) "District's tax rate ceiling", the highest tax rate ceiling in effect subsequent to the 1980 tax year or any subsequent year. Such tax rate ceiling shall not contain any tax levy for debt service;

(4) "Eligible pupils" shall be the sum of the average daily attendance of the school term plus the product of two times the average daily attendance for summer school;

(5) "Equalized assessed valuation of the property of a school district" shall be determined by multiplying the assessed valuation of the real property subclasses specified in section 137.115, RSMo, times the percent of true value as adjusted by the department of elementary and secondary education to an equivalent sales ratio of thirty-three and one-third percent and dividing by either the percent of true value as determined by the state tax commission on or before March fifteenth preceding the fiscal year in which the valuation will be effective as adjusted by the department of elementary and secondary education to an equivalent sales ratio of thirty-three and one-third percent or the average percent of true value for the highest three of the last four years as determined and certified by the state tax commission, whichever is greater. To the equalized locally assessed valuation of each district shall be added the assessed valuation of tangible personal property. The assessed valuation of property which has previously been excluded from the tax rolls, which is being contested as not being taxable and which increases the total assessed valuation of the school district by fifty percent or more, shall not be included in the calculation of equalized assessed valuation under this subdivision;

(6) "Free and reduced lunch eligible pupil count", the number of pupils eligible for free and reduced lunch on the last Wednesday in January for the preceding school year who were enrolled as students of the district, as approved by the department in accordance with applicable federal regulations;

(7) "Guaranteed tax base" means the amount of equalized assessed valuation per eligible pupil guaranteed each school district by the state in the computation of state aid. To compute the guaranteed tax base, school districts shall be ranked annually from lowest to highest according to the amount of equalized assessed valuation per pupil. The guaranteed tax base shall be based upon the amount of equalized assessed valuation per pupil of the school district in which the ninety-fifth percentile of the state aggregate number of pupils falls during the third preceding year and shall be equal to the state average equalized assessed valuation per eligible pupil for the third preceding year times two and one hundred and sixty-seven thousandths. The average equalized assessed valuation per pupil shall be the quotient of the total equalized assessed valuation of the state divided by the number of eligible pupils;

(8) "Membership" shall be the average of (1) the number of resident full-time students and the full-time equivalent number of part-time students who were enrolled in the public schools of the district on the last Wednesday in September of the previous year and who were in attendance one day or more during the preceding ten school days and (2) the number of resident full-time students and the full-time equivalent number of part-time students who were enrolled in the public schools of the district on the last Wednesday in January of the previous year and who were in attendance one day or more during the preceding ten school days, plus the full-time equivalent number of summer school pupils. "Full-time equivalent number of part-time students" is determined by dividing the total number of hours for which all part-time students are enrolled by the number of hours in the school term. "Full-time equivalent number of summer school pupils" is determined by dividing the total number of hours for which all summer school pupils were enrolled by the number of hours required pursuant to section 160.011, RSMo, in the school term. Only students eligible to be counted for average daily attendance shall be counted for membership;

(9) "Operating levy for school purposes" means the sum of tax rates levied for teachers and incidental funds in the payment year and shall be, after all adjustments and equalization of the operating levy, no less than the minimum value required in section 163.021 for eligibility for increases in state aid as calculated pursuant to section 163.031 and no greater than a maximum value of four dollars and sixty cents per one hundred dollars assessed valuation. To equalize the operating levy, multiply the aggregate tax rates for teachers, incidental, and building funds by either the percent of true value, as determined by the state tax commission on or before March fifteenth preceding the fiscal year in which the evaluation will be effective as adjusted by the department of elementary and secondary education to an equivalent sales ratio of thirty-three and one-third percent, or the average percent of true value for the highest three of the last four years as determined and certified by the state tax commission, whichever is greater, and divide by the percent of true value as adjusted by the department of elementary and secondary education to an equivalent sales ratio of thirty-three and one-third percent, provided that for any district for which the equivalent sales ratio is equal to or greater than thirty-three and one-third percent, the equalized operating levy shall be the adjusted operating levy. For any county in which the equivalent sales ratio is less than thirty-one and two-thirds percent, the state tax commission shall conduct a second study in that county and shall use a sample at least twice as large as the one originally used. If the new ratio is higher than the original ratio provided by this subdivision, the new ratio shall be used for the purposes of this subdivision and for determining equalized assessed valuation pursuant to subdivision (5) of this section. For the purposes of calculating state aid pursuant to section 163.031, for any district which has not enacted a voluntary tax rate rollback nor increased the amount of a voluntary tax rate rollback from the previous year's amount, the tax rate used to determine a district's entitlement shall be adjusted so that any decrease in the entitlement due to a decrease in the tax rate resulting from the reassessment shall equal the decrease in the deduction for the assessed valuation of the district as a result of the change in the tax rate due to reassessment. The tax rate adjustments required under this subdivision due to reassessment shall be cumulative and shall be applied each year to determine the tax rate used to calculate the entitlement; except that whenever the actual current operating levy exceeds the tax rate calculated pursuant to this subdivision for the purpose of determining the district's entitlement, then the prior tax rate adjustments required under this subdivision due to reassessment shall be eliminated and shall not be applied in determining the tax rate used to calculate the district entitlement;

(10) "School purposes" pertains to teachers and incidental funds;

(11) "Teacher" means any teacher, teacher-secretary, substitute teacher, supervisor, principal, supervising principal, superintendent or assistant superintendent, school nurse, social worker, counselor or librarian who shall, regularly, teach or be employed for no higher than grade twelve more than one-half time in the public schools and who is certified under the laws governing the certification of teachers in Missouri;

(12) "Adjusted operating levy", the sum of tax rates for the current year for teachers and incidental funds for a school district as reported to the proper officer of each county pursuant to section 164.011, RSMo;

(13) "Current operating costs", all expenditures for instruction and support services excluding capital outlay and debt service expenditures less the revenue from federal categorical sources, food service, student activities and payments from other districts.

Section B. Because of the immediate need to allow pupils to attend school in certain districts for the next school year, Section 163.011 is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and Section 163.011 shall be in full force and effect upon its passage and approval.".

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

SIXTY-SIXTH DAY, Tuesday, May 6, 1997

Speaker Gaw in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"See what love the Father has given us that we should be called children of God." (I John 3:1).

Eleanor Spiller has this sign on her desk in the hall:

"Tell me and I forget

Show me and I remember

Involve me and I understand."

Gracious God, how often life would be more simple, less frustrating if we followed that simple piece of advice. Teach us to take the time, to have the respect, to overcome the fear, that so often makes us ignore that advice and inflict the hurt and the pain which perpetuate or cause alienation. Make us healers and bridge-builders and community leaders by starting out small, where we are, by working as partners with our family, in our places of worship, our regular jobs and in this House to benefit from the talents and the gifts of each person. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Leslie Mehmert, Kathy Hegerfeld, Justin Hartge, Becca Cramer, Ashley Johnson, Tanya Dye, Amber Williams, Debra Collier, Micheal Anderson, Lauren Garten, Luke Lachmann, Stephanie Miller, Erika Ponzar, Philip Cantwell, Lindsay Murray, Blaire Willenbrock, Ashley Roberts, Ashley Kidwiler, Ida Beth Wombwell, Troy Wilson, Kenny Vaughn, Alexandra Bryant, Chris Ulinski, Nicky Wright, Marissa Anderson and Mark White.

The Journal of the sixty-fifth day was approved as corrected.

House Resolution No. 995

Whereas, it is estimated that nearly four million Americans are chronically infected with hepatitis C; and

Whereas, the National Institute of Health has determined chronic viral hepatitis C to be a major public health issue, and it has conducted a consensus conference addressing the detection and treatment of the hepatitis C virus; and

Whereas, the St. Louis Chapter for the American Liver Foundation supports an effort to more fully inform the public about hepatitis C; and

Whereas, an estimated thirty thousand new cases of hepatitis C occur each year in the United States; and

Whereas, the hepatitis C virus is the cause of eight thousand to ten thousand preventable deaths per year in the United States; and

Whereas, consequences of the hepatitis C virus cost about seven million three hundred thousand dollars ($7,300,000) per one hundred thousand patients because individuals infected with the virus remain largely asymptomatic until the virus causes irreversible liver damage; and

Whereas, eighty-five percent of all Americans infected with the hepatitis C virus become chronically infected and develop cirrhosis and liver cancer; and

Whereas, the Missouri Liver Foundation estimates that in the 1980s blood transfusions caused transmission of the human immunodeficiency virus and hepatitis C viruses with an estimated three hundred thousand people infected with the hepatitis C virus alone because of the lack of an adequate screening test for the blood supply prior to 1990; and

Whereas, risk factors for the hepatitis C virus include popular practices such as body piercing and tattooing, and other means of blood transmission, including health care workers who are exposed to needle sticks, and intravenous drug users, but in more than forty percent of infected patients, it is unknown how the virus occurred; and

Whereas, there is a food and drug administration-approved treatment for the hepatitis C virus; and

Whereas, in the absence of a vaccine, emphasis must be placed on other means of disease prevention; and

Whereas, educating Americans about hepatitis C can help prevent its spread; and

Whereas, hepatitis C is largely unreported, under diagnosed, and the public is uninformed about the virus:

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Missouri House of Representatives, Eighty-ninth General Assembly, the State of Missouri that the month of June be designated as Hepatitis C Awareness Month and that the Department of Health be urged to increase public awareness and education about the hepatitis C virus during hepatitis C awareness month; and

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

SIXTY-SEVENTH DAY, Wednesday, May 7, 1997

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Robert Herman, Jefferson City Temple Beth'el.

The world is sustained by three things: by justice, by truth, and by peace.

Justice shall you pursue for the Lord is righteous; he loves righteous deeds.

Hate evil and love good, and establish justice in this state.

Thus says the Lord; let not the wise glory in their wisdom, let not the mighty glory in their might, let not the rich glory in their riches, but let them who glory, glory this; that they understand and know me, that I am the Lord who practices kindness, justice, and righteousness in the earth, for in these things I delight.

Psalm 15

Lord who may abide in your house? Who may dwell in your Holy Mountain?

Those who are upright; who do justly; who speak truth within their hearts.

Who do not slander others, or wrong them, or bring shame upon them.

Who scorn the lawless, but honor those who revere the Lord.

Who give their word, and, come what may, do not retract.

Who do not exploit others, who never take bribes.

Those who live in this way shall never be shaken.

We pray for all who hold positions of leadership and responsibility in our state. Let your blessing rest upon them, make them responsive to your will, so that our state may be to all an example of justice and compassion.

Deepen our love for our state and our desire to serve it. Strengthen our power of self-sacrifice for our states welfare. Teach us to uphold its good name by our own right conduct.

Cause us to see clearly that the well-being of our state is in the hands of all its citizens; imbue us with zeal for the cause of liberty and tolerance in our own state and in all lands; and help us always to keep our homes safe from affliction, strife, and war.

May he who causes peace to reign in the high heavens, let peace descend on us, on all the world and let us say Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Christopher Halstead, Thomas McAllister, Daniela Profeta, Michael Reinders, Darnell Brown, Kendrick Clark, Zebrina Anderson, Nina Ballmann, Leslie Mehmert, Kathy Hegerfeld, Justin Hartge, Becca Cramer, Dawn Henson, Jeremy Henson, Peregrine Stuart Gunn, Thomas Chibnall, Lori Hejlek, Rene` Cranwell and Angie Coughlan.

"43.503. 1. For the purpose of maintaining complete and accurate criminal history record information, all police officers of this state, the clerk of each court, the department of corrections, the sheriff of each county, the chief law enforcement official of a city not within a county and the prosecuting attorney of each county or the circuit attorney of a city not within a county shall submit certain criminal arrest, charge, and disposition information to the central repository for filing without undue delay in the form and manner required by sections 43.500 to 43.530.

2. All law enforcement agencies making misdemeanor and felony arrests as determined by section 43.506 shall furnish without undue delay, to the central repository, fingerprints, charges, and descriptions of all persons who are arrested for such offenses on standard fingerprint forms supplied by the highway patrol. All such agencies shall also notify the central repository of all decisions not to refer such arrests for prosecution. An agency making such arrests may enter into arrangements with other law enforcement agencies for the purpose of furnishing without undue delay such fingerprints, charges, and descriptions to the central repository upon its behalf. In instances where an individual less than seventeen years of age is taken into custody for an offense which would be considered a felony if committed by an adult, the arresting officer shall take one set of fingerprints for the central repository and may take another set for inclusion in a local or regional automated fingerprint identification system. These fingerprints shall be taken on fingerprint cards which are plainly marked "juvenile card" and shall be provided by the central repository. The fingerprint cards shall be so constructed that only the fingerprints, unique identifying number, and the court of jurisdiction are made available to the central or local repository. The remainder of the card which bears the individual's identification and the duplicate unique number shall be provided to the court of jurisdiction. The appropriate portion of the juvenile fingerprint card shall be forwarded to the central repository and the courts without undue delay. The fingerprint information from the card shall be captured and stored in the automated fingerprint identification system operated by the central repository. The juvenile fingerprint card shall be stored in a secure location, separate from all other fingerprint cards. In the event the fingerprints from this card are found to match latent prints searched in the automated fingerprint identification system, the court of jurisdiction shall be so advised.

3. The prosecuting attorney of each county or the circuit attorney of a city not within a county shall notify the central repository on standard forms supplied by the highway patrol of all charges filed, including all those added subsequent to the filing of a criminal court case, and whether charges were not filed in criminal cases for which the central repository has a record of an arrest. All records forwarded to the central repository by prosecutors or circuit attorneys as required by sections 43.500 to 43.530 shall include the state offense cycle number of the offense, and the originating agency identifier number of the reporting prosecutor, using such numbers as assigned by the highway patrol.

4. The clerk of the courts of each county or city not within a county shall furnish the central repository, on standard forms supplied by the highway patrol, with all final dispositions of criminal cases for which the central repository has a record of an arrest or a record of fingerprints reported pursuant to subsections 6 and 7 of this section. Such information shall include, for each charge:

(1) All judgments of not guilty, acquittals on the ground of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility, judgments or pleas of guilty including the sentence, if any, or probation, if any, pronounced by the court, nolle pros, discharges, releases and dismissals in the trial court;

(2) Court orders filed with the clerk of the courts which reverse a reported conviction or vacate or modify a sentence;

(3) Judgments terminating or revoking a sentence to probation, supervision or conditional release and any resentencing after such revocation; and

(4) The offense cycle number of the offense, and the originating agency identifier number of the reporting court, using such numbers as assigned by the highway patrol.

5. The clerk of the courts of each county or city not within a county shall furnish court judgment and sentence documents and the state offense cycle number of the offense, which result in the commitment or assignment of an offender, to the jurisdiction of the department of corrections or the department of mental health if the person is committed pursuant to chapter 552, RSMo. This information shall be reported to the department of corrections or the department of mental health at the time of commitment or assignment. If the offender was already in the custody of the department of corrections or the department of mental health at the time of such subsequent conviction, the clerk shall furnish notice of such subsequent conviction to the appropriate department [of corrections] by certified mail, return receipt requested, within ten days of such disposition.

6. After the court pronounces sentence, including an order of supervision or an order of probation granted for any offense which is required by statute to be collected, maintained, or disseminated by the central repository, or commits a person to the department of mental health pursuant to chapter 552, RSMo, the prosecuting attorney or the circuit attorney of a city not within a county shall ask the court to order a law enforcement agency to fingerprint immediately all [sentenced] persons appearing before the court to be sentenced or committed who have not previously been fingerprinted for the same case. The court shall order the requested fingerprinting if it determines that any sentenced or committed person has not previously been fingerprinted for the same case. The law enforcement agency shall submit such fingerprints to the central repository without undue delay.

7. The department of corrections and the department of mental health shall furnish the central repository with all information concerning the receipt, escape, execution, death, release, pardon, parole, commutation of sentence, granting of executive clemency, or discharge of an individual who has been sentenced to [the] that department's custody for any offenses which are mandated by [this act] law to be collected, maintained or disseminated by the central repository. All records forwarded to the central repository by the department as required by sections 43.500 to 43.530 shall include the offense cycle number of the offense, and the originating agency identifier number of the department using such numbers as assigned by the highway patrol.

552.030. 1. A person is not responsible for criminal conduct if, at the time of such conduct, as a result of mental disease or defect [he] such person was incapable of knowing and appreciating the nature, quality, or wrongfulness of [his] such person's conduct.

2. Evidence of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility shall not be admissible at trial of the accused unless the accused, at the time of entering [his] such accused's plea to the charge, pleads not guilty by reason of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility, or unless within ten days after a plea of not guilty, or at such later date as the court may for good cause permit, [he] the accused files a written notice of [his] such accused's purpose to rely on such defense. Such a plea or notice shall not deprive the accused of other defenses. The state may accept a defense of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility, whether raised by plea or written notice, if the accused has no other defense and files a written notice to that effect. The state shall not accept a defense of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility in the absence of any pretrial evaluation as described in this section or section 552.020. Upon the state's acceptance of the defense of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility, the court shall proceed to order the commitment of the accused as provided in section 552.040 in cases of persons acquitted on the ground of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility, and further proceedings shall be had regarding the confinement and release of the accused as provided in section 552.040.

3. Whenever the accused has pleaded mental disease or defect excluding responsibility or has given the written notice provided in subsection 2 of this section, and such defense has not been accepted as provided in subsection 2 of this section, the court shall, after notice and upon motion of either the state or the accused, by order of record, appoint one or more private psychiatrists or psychologists, as defined in section 632.005, RSMo, or physicians with a minimum of one year training or experience in providing treatment or services to mentally retarded or mentally ill individuals, who are neither employees nor contractors of the department of mental health for purposes of performing the examination in question, to examine the accused, or shall direct the director of the department of mental health, or [his] the director's designee, to have the accused so examined by one or more psychiatrists or psychologists, as defined in section 632.005, RSMo, or physicians with a minimum of one year training or experience in providing treatment or services to mentally retarded or mentally ill individuals designated by the director, or [his] the director's designee, as qualified to perform examinations pursuant to this chapter. The order shall direct that written report or reports of such examination be filed with the clerk of the court. No private psychiatrist, psychologist, or physician shall be appointed by the court unless [he] such psychiatrist, psychologist or physician has consented to act. The examinations ordered shall be made at such time and place and under such conditions as the court deems proper; except that, if the order directs the director of the department of mental health to have the accused examined, the director, or [his] the director's designee, shall determine the time, place and conditions under which the examination shall be conducted. The order may include provisions for the interview of witnesses and may require the provision of police reports to the department for use in evaluation. If an examination provided in section 552.020 was made and the report [thereof] of such examination included an opinion as to whether, at the time of the alleged criminal conduct, the accused, as a result of mental disease or defect, did not know or appreciate the nature, quality or wrongfulness of [his] such accused's conduct or as a result of mental disease or defect was incapable of conforming [his] such accused's conduct to the requirements of law, such report may be received in evidence, and no new examination shall be required by the court unless, in the discretion of the court, another examination is necessary. If an examination is ordered pursuant to this section, the report shall contain the information required in subsections 3 and 4 of section 552.020. Within ten days after receiving a copy of such report, both the accused and the state shall, upon written request, be entitled to an order granting them an examination of the accused by an examiner of [his] such accused's or its own choosing and at [his] such accused's or its expense. The clerk of the court shall deliver copies of the report or reports to the prosecuting or circuit attorney and to the accused or [his] such accused's counsel. No reports required by this subsection shall be public records or be open to the public. Any examination performed pursuant to this subsection shall be completed and the results shall be filed with the court within sixty days of the date it is received by the department or private psychiatrist, psychologist or physician unless the court, for good cause, orders otherwise.

4. If the report contains the recommendation that the accused should be held in custody in a suitable hospital facility pending trial, and if the accused is not admitted to bail, or released on other conditions, the court may order that the accused be committed to or held in a suitable hospital facility pending trial.

5. No statement made by the accused in the course of any such examination and no information received by any physician or other person in the course thereof, whether such examination was made with or without the consent of the accused or upon [his] the accused's motion or upon that of others, shall be admitted in evidence against the accused on the issue of whether [he] the accused committed the act charged against [him] the accused in any criminal proceeding then or thereafter pending in any court, state or federal. The statement or information shall be admissible in evidence for or against [him] the accused only on the issue of [his] such accused's mental condition, whether or not it would otherwise be deemed to be a privileged communication. If the statement or information is admitted for or against the accused on the issue of [his] such accused's mental condition, the court shall, both orally at the time of its admission and later by instruction, inform the jury that it must not consider such statement or information as any evidence of whether the accused committed the act charged against [him] the accused.

6. All persons are presumed to be free of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility for their conduct, whether or not previously adjudicated in this or any other state to be or to have been sexual or social psychopaths, or incompetent; provided, however, the court may admit evidence presented at such adjudication based on its probative value. The issue of whether any person had a mental disease or defect excluding responsibility for [his] such person's conduct is one for the trier of fact to decide upon the introduction of substantial evidence of lack of such responsibility. But, in the absence of such evidence, the presumption shall be conclusive. Upon the introduction of substantial evidence of lack of such responsibility, the presumption shall not disappear and shall alone be sufficient to take that issue to the trier of fact. The jury shall be instructed as to the existence and nature of such presumption when requested by the state and, where the issue of such responsibility is one for the jury to decide, the jury shall be told that the burden rests upon the accused to show by a preponderance or greater weight of the credible evidence that the defendant was suffering from a mental disease or defect excluding responsibility at the time of the conduct charged against [him] the defendant. At the request of the defense the jury shall be instructed by the court as to the contents of subsection 2 of section 552.040.

7. When the accused is acquitted on the ground of mental disease or defect excluding responsibility, the verdict and the judgment shall so state as well as state the offense for which the accused was acquitted. The clerk of the court shall furnish a copy of any judgment or order of commitment to the department of mental health pursuant to this section to the criminal records central repository pursuant to section 43.403, RSMo.

610.105. If the person arrested is charged but the case is subsequently nolle prossed, dismissed, or the accused is found not guilty, unless the finding of not guilty is pursuant to section 552.030, RSMo, or imposition of sentence is suspended in the court in which the action is prosecuted, official records pertaining to the case shall thereafter be closed records when such case is finally terminated except that the disposition portion of the record may be accessed for purposes of exculpation and except as provided in section 610.120.".

House Resolution No. 621

Whereas, farm workers toiling in strawberry fields are among the most exploited workers in the nation; and

Whereas, up to 20,000 women, men, and children who are working in California strawberry fields typically spend 10 to 12 hours a day picking fruit from ankle-level plants, suffer chronic back pain and injuries, and experience potentially dangerous exposure to pesticides; and

Whereas, most strawberry workers receive poverty-level wages and have not had a pay raise in 10 years; and

Whereas, strawberry workers have few or no medical benefits, sexual harassment is common, and bathrooms in the fields are often filthy; and

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

SIXTY-EIGHTH DAY, Thursday, May 8, 1997

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Cheryl L. Tatham.

O Lord, as the human drama unfolds before us each day, we become ever more aware of the need for your peace in this world. Whether it's radical separatists in a Texas stand off, criminals roaming the backwoods of Missouri, or terrorist threats in foreign lands, there is unrest in the world and injustice to be addressed.

But as we approach this last week of the session, remind us of good things that have been accomplished in this place this year. The health and welfare of Missouri's children have been seriously addressed, the way people are affected by taxes has been looked at and negotiated, the laws and regulations of Missouri have been reviewed for their service to the people.

O God of Compassion, these representatives have put in a tough year and are in the long, tiring, downhill run. Give them strength for the finish. Give them courage to stand firm, and bless them in their efforts. And help them, O Holy One, to continue to work for the causes of peace and justice. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Ryan Boswell, Cale Hill, Mac Mohi, Cody Sloan, Adam Adrignola, Emily Adrignola, Matthew Adrignola, Sam Adrignola, Josh Joly, Rusty Mounce, Patrick Gabel, Sarah Fulkerson, Sarah Karner and Todd Lewis.

The Journal of the sixty-seventh day was approved as corrected.

AMEND Part II of House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 121, Page 9, Section 307.178, Line 9 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"307.350. 1. The owner of every motor vehicle as defined in section 301.010, RSMo, which is required to be registered in this state, except:

(1) New motor vehicles which have not been previously titled and registered, prior to the initial motor vehicle registration or the next succeeding registration which is required by law;

(2) Those motor vehicles which are engaged in interstate commerce and are proportionately registered in this state with the Missouri highway reciprocity commission, although the owner may request that such vehicle be inspected by an official inspection station, and a peace officer may stop and inspect such vehicles to determine whether the mechanical condition is in compliance with the safety regulations established by the United States Department of Transportation; and

(3) Historic motor vehicles registered pursuant to section 301.131, RSMo; shall submit such vehicles to [an annual] a biennial inspection of their mechanism and equipment in accordance with the provisions of sections 307.350 to 307.390 and obtain a certificate of inspection and approval and a sticker, seal, or other device from a duly authorized official inspection station. The inspection, except the inspection of school buses which shall be made at the time provided in section 307.375, shall be made at the time prescribed in the rules and regulations issued by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol; but the inspection of a vehicle shall not be made more than sixty days prior to the date of application for annual registration in a year in which an inspection is required or within sixty days of when a vehicle's registration is transferred. The certificate of inspection and approval shall be a sticker, seal, or other device or combination thereof, as the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol prescribes by regulation and shall be displayed upon the motor vehicle or trailer as prescribed by the regulations established by him. The replacement of certificates of inspection and approval which are lost or destroyed shall be made by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol under regulations prescribed by him.

2. For the purpose of obtaining an inspection only, it shall be lawful to operate a vehicle over the most direct route between the owner's usual place of residence and an inspection station of such owner's choice, notwithstanding the fact that the vehicle does not have a current state registration license. It shall also be lawful to operate such a vehicle from an inspection station to another place where repairs may be made and to return the vehicle to the inspection station notwithstanding the absence of a current state registration license.

[3. No person whose motor vehicle was duly inspected and approved as provided in this section shall be required to have the same motor vehicle again inspected and approved for the sole reason that such person wishes to obtain a set of any special personalized license plates available pursuant to section 301.144, RSMo, or a set of any license plates available pursuant to section 301.142, RSMo, prior to the expiration date of such motor vehicle's current annual registration.

4.] 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 307.390, violation of this section shall be deemed an infraction.

307.353. Other provisions of law notwithstanding, no person shall be required to have [an annual] a biennial vehicle inspection during a registration period which exceeds one year. The inspection required at the beginning of the registration period shall be valid for the entire registration period.

307.355. 1. No state registration license to operate the type of vehicle required to be inspected by section 307.350 may be transferred or issued unless the application for the transfer of a license or the application for annual registration is accompanied by a current certificate of inspection and approval issued not more than sixty days prior to the date of the application in a year in which an inspection is required, or, in the cases of school buses, the current certificate of inspection and approval issued at the time provided in section 307.375 next preceding the date of application, except:

(1) The director of revenue may transfer or issue a state registration license to the type of vehicle required to be inspected by section 307.350 without a certificate of inspection and approval accompanying the application if the director has satisfactory evidence that the vehicle was not in the state of Missouri at any time during the sixty days prior to the date of application; however, the owner of every such vehicle must submit the vehicle for inspection and obtain a certificate of inspection and approval within ten days after the vehicle is first returned to the state of Missouri.

(2) The director of revenue shall renew a vehicle's registration license without a certificate of inspection and approval accompanying the application if satisfactory documentary evidence is presented at the time of application that the license being renewed was properly transferred within a six-month period prior to the expiration of the license being renewed or that the vehicle for which the registration is being issued was issued a registration for a period of less than one year for the registration period just expiring.

2. If due to interstate operation a commercial motor vehicle as defined in section 301.010, RSMo, or a trailer of the type required to be inspected is required to obtain full fee registration in this and any other state during the same calendar year, no Missouri certificate of inspection and approval is required if the vehicle bears evidence that a current valid inspection sticker or decal was issued by such other state in which the vehicle is registered; provided that the sticker or decal issued by such other state is valid for the registration period in this state.

3. After a commercial motor vehicle as defined in section 301.010, RSMo, has been registered for the current year, no certificate of inspection and approval is required when a local commercial motor vehicle license is changed to a beyond-local commercial motor vehicle license or when the licensed gross weight is changed during the licensed period.

307.365. 1. No permit for an official inspection station shall be assigned or transferred or used at any location other than therein designated and every permit shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the location designated. The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol shall design and furnish each official inspection station, at no cost, one official sign made of metal or other durable material to be displayed in a conspicuous location to designate the station as an official inspection station. Additional signs may be obtained by an official inspection station for a fee equal to the cost to the state. Each inspection station shall also be supplied with one or more posters which must be displayed in a conspicuous location at the place of inspection and which informs the public that required repairs or corrections need not be made at the inspection station.

2. No person operating an official inspection station under the provisions of sections 307.350 to 307.390 may issue a certificate of inspection and approval for any vehicle except upon an official form furnished by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol for that purpose and only after inspecting the vehicle and determining that its brakes, lighting equipment, signaling devices, steering mechanisms, horns, mirrors, windshield wipers, tires, wheels, exhaust system, glazing, air pollution control devices, fuel tank and any other safety equipment as required by the state are in proper condition and adjustment to be operated upon the public highways of this state with safety to the driver or operator, other occupants therein, as well as other persons and property upon the highways, as provided by sections 307.350 to 307.390 and the regulations prescribed by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol. No person operating an official inspection station shall furnish, loan, give or sell a certificate of inspection and approval to any other person except those entitled to receive it under provisions of sections 307.350 to 307.390. No person shall have in his possession any certificate of inspection and approval and/or inspection sticker with knowledge that the certificate and/or inspection sticker has been illegally purchased, stolen or counterfeited.

3. The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol may require officially designated stations to furnish reports upon forms furnished by him for that purpose as he considers reasonably necessary for the proper and efficient administration of sections 307.350 to 307.390.

4. If, upon inspection, defects or unsafe conditions are found, the owner may correct them himself or shall have them corrected at any place of his own choice within fifteen days after the defect or unsafe condition is found, and shall have the right to remove the vehicle to such place for correction, but before the vehicle is operated thereafter upon the public highways of this state, a certificate of inspection and approval must be obtained. The inspecting personnel of the official inspection station must inform the owner that he need not have the corrections made at the inspection station.

5. A fee, not to exceed [seven] fourteen dollars, as determined by each official inspection station, may be charged by an official inspection station for each official inspection including the issuance of the certificate of inspection and approval, sticker, seal or other device and a total fee, not to exceed six dollars, as determined by each official inspection station, may be charged for an official inspection of a trailer or motorcycle, which shall include the issuance of the certificate of inspection and approval, sticker, seal or other device. Such fee shall be conspicuously posted on the premises of each such official inspection station. No owner shall be charged an additional inspection fee upon having corrected defects or unsafe conditions found in an inspection completed within the previous ten consecutive days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, if such follow-up inspection is made by the station making the initial inspection. Every inspection for which a fee is charged shall be a complete inspection, and upon completion of the inspection, if any defects are found the owner of the vehicle shall be furnished a list of the defects and a receipt for the fee paid for the inspection. If the owner of a vehicle decides to have any necessary repairs or corrections made at the official inspection station, he shall be furnished a written estimate of the cost of such repairs before such repairs or corrections are made by the official inspection station. The written estimate shall have plainly written upon it that the owner understands that he need not have the corrections made by the official inspection station and shall have a signature line for the owner. The owner must sign below the statement on the signature line before any repairs are made.

6. Certificates of inspection and approval, sticker, seal or other device shall be purchased by the official inspection stations from the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol. The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol shall collect a fee of seventy-five cents for each certificate of inspection, sticker, seal or other device issued to the official inspection stations, except that no charge shall be made for certificates of inspection, sticker, seal or other device issued to official inspection stations operated by governmental entities. All fees collected shall be deposited in the state treasury with fifty cents of each fee collected credited to the state highway fund and, for the purpose of administering and enforcing the state motor vehicle laws and traffic regulations, twenty-five cents credited to the "Highway Patrol Inspection Fund" which is hereby created. The moneys collected and deposited in the highway patrol inspection fund shall be expended subject to appropriations by the general assembly for the administration and enforcement of sections 307.350 to 307.390 by the Missouri state highway patrol. The unexpended balance in the fund at the end of each biennium exceeding the amount of the appropriations from the fund for the first two fiscal years shall be transferred to the state road fund, and the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, relating to the transfer of funds to the general revenue fund at the end of the biennium, shall not apply to the fund.

7. The owner or operator of any inspection station who discontinues operation during the period that a station permit is valid or whose station permit is suspended or revoked shall return all official signs and posters and any current unused inspection stickers, seals or other devices to the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol and shall receive a full refund on request except for official signs and posters, provided the request is made during the calendar year or within sixty days thereafter in the manner prescribed by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol. Stations which have a valid permit shall exchange unused previous year issue inspection stickers and/or decals for an identical number of current year issue, provided the unused stickers and/or decals are submitted for exchange not later than April thirtieth of the current calendar year, in the manner prescribed by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol.

307.366. 1. This enactment of the emissions inspection program is a mandate of the United States Congress pursuant to the federal Clean Air Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7401, et seq. In any city not within a county, any county of the first classification having a population of over nine hundred thousand inhabitants according to the most recent decennial census, any county of the first classification with a charter form of government and a population of not more than two hundred twenty thousand inhabitants and not less than two hundred thousand inhabitants according to the most recent decennial census, any county of the first classification without a charter form of government with a population of not more than one hundred eighty thousand inhabitants and not less than one hundred seventy thousand inhabitants according to the most recent decennial census and any county of the first classification without a charter form of government with a population of not more than eighty-two thousand inhabitants and not less than eighty thousand inhabitants according to the most recent decennial census, [as a part of the motor vehicle inspection procedure required by sections 307.350 to 307.390,] certain motor vehicles shall be tested to determine that the emissions system is functioning within the emission standards as specified by the Missouri air conservation commission and as required to attain the national health standards for air quality. The motor vehicles to be tested shall be all vehicles except those specifically exempted pursuant to subdivisions (1) to (3) of subsection 1 of section 307.350 and those exempted pursuant to this section. Motor vehicles shall have their emission systems tested annually and where applicable, the vehicles shall be tested as part of the motor vehicle safety inspection procedure required by sections 307.350 to 307.390.

2. The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(1) Motor vehicles with a manufacturer's gross vehicle weight rating in excess of eight thousand five hundred pounds;

(2) Motorcycles and motortricycles;

(3) Model year vehicles prior to 1971;

(4) School buses;

(5) Diesel-powered vehicles;

(6) Motor vehicles registered in the area covered by this section but which are based and operated exclusively in an area of this state not subject to the provisions of this section if the owner of such vehicle presents to the director a sworn affidavit that the vehicle will be based and operated outside the covered area; and

(7) New motor vehicles not previously titled or registered prior to the initial motor vehicle registration or the next succeeding registration which is required by law.

Each official inspection station which conducts safety or emissions inspections in a city or county referred to in subsection 1 of this section shall indicate the gross vehicle weight rating of the motor vehicle on the safety inspection certificate if the vehicle is exempt from the emissions inspection pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection.

3. In addition to the fee authorized by subsection 5 of section 307.365, a fee, not to exceed eight dollars and fifty cents for inspections conducted prior to January 1, 1993, and not to exceed ten dollars and fifty cents for inspections conducted thereafter, as determined by each official safety and emissions inspection station located in any city or county described in subsection 1 of this section, may be charged for an automobile emissions and air pollution control inspection in order to attain the national health standards for air quality. Such fee shall be conspicuously posted on the premises of each such inspection station. The official safety and emissions inspection station shall issue a certificate of inspection and an approval sticker or seal certifying the emissions system is functioning properly. The certificate or approval issued shall bear the legend: "This cost is mandated by your United States Congress." No owner shall be charged an additional fee after having corrected defects or unsafe conditions in the automobile's emissions and air pollution control system if the reinspection is completed within twenty consecutive days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, and if such follow-up inspection is made by the station making the initial inspection.

4. The air conservation commission shall establish, by rule, a waiver amount which may be lower for older model vehicles and which shall be no greater than seventy-five dollars for model year vehicles prior to 1981 and no greater than two hundred dollars for model year vehicles of 1981 and all subsequent model years.

5. An owner whose vehicle fails upon reinspection to meet the emission standards specified by the Missouri air conservation commission shall be issued a certificate of inspection and an approval sticker or seal by the official safety and emissions inspection station that provided the inspection if the vehicle owner furnishes a complete, signed affidavit satisfying the requirements of this subsection and the cost of emissions repairs and adjustments is equal to or greater than the waiver amount established by the air conservation commission pursuant to this section. The air conservation commission shall establish, by rule, a form and a procedure for verifying that repair and adjustment was performed on a failing vehicle prior to the granting of a waiver and approval. The waiver form established pursuant to this subsection shall be an affidavit requiring:

(1) A statement signed by the repairer that the specified work was done and stating the itemized charges for the work; and

(2) A statement signed by the inspector that an inspection of the vehicle verified, to the extent practical, that the specified work was done.

6. The department of revenue shall require evidence of the inspection and approval required by this section in issuing the motor vehicle annual registration in conformity with the procedure required by sections 307.350 to 307.370.

7. Each safety and emissions inspection station located in any city or county described in subsection 1 of this section shall purchase from the highway patrol sufficient forms and stickers or other devices to evidence approval of the motor vehicle's emissions control system. In addition, safety and emissions inspection stations may be required to purchase forms for use in automated analyzers from outside vendors of the inspection station's choice. The forms must comply with state regulations.

8. In addition to the fee collected by the superintendent pursuant to subsection 5 of section 307.365, the highway patrol shall collect a fee of seventy-five cents for each automobile emissions certificate issued to the applicable official safety and emissions inspection stations, except that no charge shall be made for certificates of inspection issued to official safety and emissions inspection stations operated by governmental entities. PART I

AMEND Part II of House Substitute for House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 121, Page 9, Section 307.178, Line 9 of said page, by inserting after all of said line the following:

"307.350. 1. The owner of every motor vehicle as defined in section 301.010, RSMo, which is required to be registered in this state, except:

(1) New motor vehicles which have not been previously titled and registered, prior to the initial motor vehicle registration or the next succeeding registration which is required by law;

(2) Those motor vehicles which are engaged in interstate commerce and are proportionately registered in this state with the Missouri highway reciprocity commission, although the owner may request that such vehicle be inspected by an official inspection station, and a peace officer may stop and inspect such vehicles to determine whether the mechanical condition is in compliance with the safety regulations established by the United States Department of Transportation; and

(3) Historic motor vehicles registered pursuant to section 301.131, RSMo; shall submit such vehicles to [an annual] a biennial inspection of their mechanism and equipment in accordance with the provisions of sections 307.350 to 307.390 and obtain a certificate of inspection and approval and a sticker, seal, or other device from a duly authorized official inspection station. The inspection, except the inspection of school buses which shall be made at the time provided in section 307.375, shall be made at the time prescribed in the rules and regulations issued by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol; but the inspection of a vehicle shall not be made more than sixty days prior to the date of application for annual registration in a year in which an inspection is required or within sixty days of when a vehicle's registration is transferred. The certificate of inspection and approval shall be a sticker, seal, or other device or combination thereof, as the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol prescribes by regulation and shall be displayed upon the motor vehicle or trailer as prescribed by the regulations established by him. The replacement of certificates of inspection and approval which are lost or destroyed shall be made by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol under regulations prescribed by him.

2. For the purpose of obtaining an inspection only, it shall be lawful to operate a vehicle over the most direct route between the owner's usual place of residence and an inspection station of such owner's choice, notwithstanding the fact that the vehicle does not have a current state registration license. It shall also be lawful to operate such a vehicle from an inspection station to another place where repairs may be made and to return the vehicle to the inspection station notwithstanding the absence of a current state registration license.

[3. No person whose motor vehicle was duly inspected and approved as provided in this section shall be required to have the same motor vehicle again inspected and approved for the sole reason that such person wishes to obtain a set of any special personalized license plates available pursuant to section 301.144, RSMo, or a set of any license plates available pursuant to section 301.142, RSMo, prior to the expiration date of such motor vehicle's current annual registration.

4.] 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 307.390, violation of this section shall be deemed an infraction.

307.353. Other provisions of law notwithstanding, no person shall be required to have [an annual] a biennial vehicle inspection during a registration period which exceeds one year. The inspection required at the beginning of the registration period shall be valid for the entire registration period.

307.355. 1. No state registration license to operate the type of vehicle required to be inspected by section 307.350 may be transferred or issued unless the application for the transfer of a license or the application for annual registration is accompanied by a current certificate of inspection and approval issued not more than sixty days prior to the date of the application in a year in which an inspection is required, or, in the cases of school buses, the current certificate of inspection and approval issued at the time provided in section 307.375 next preceding the date of application, except:

(1) The director of revenue may transfer or issue a state registration license to the type of vehicle required to be inspected by section 307.350 without a certificate of inspection and approval accompanying the application if the director has satisfactory evidence that the vehicle was not in the state of Missouri at any time during the sixty days prior to the date of application; however, the owner of every such vehicle must submit the vehicle for inspection and obtain a certificate of inspection and approval within ten days after the vehicle is first returned to the state of Missouri.

(2) The director of revenue shall renew a vehicle's registration license without a certificate of inspection and approval accompanying the application if satisfactory documentary evidence is presented at the time of application that the license being renewed was properly transferred within a six-month period prior to the expiration of the license being renewed or that the vehicle for which the registration is being issued was issued a registration for a period of less than one year for the registration period just expiring.

2. If due to interstate operation a commercial motor vehicle as defined in section 301.010, RSMo, or a trailer of the type required to be inspected is required to obtain full fee registration in this and any other state during the same calendar year, no Missouri certificate of inspection and approval is required if the vehicle bears evidence that a current valid inspection sticker or decal was issued by such other state in which the vehicle is registered; provided that the sticker or decal issued by such other state is valid for the registration period in this state.

3. After a commercial motor vehicle as defined in section 301.010, RSMo, has been registered for the current year, no certificate of inspection and approval is required when a local commercial motor vehicle license is changed to a beyond-local commercial motor vehicle license or when the licensed gross weight is changed during the licensed period.

307.365. 1. No permit for an official inspection station shall be assigned or transferred or used at any location other than therein designated and every permit shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the location designated. The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol shall design and furnish each official inspection station, at no cost, one official sign made of metal or other durable material to be displayed in a conspicuous location to designate the station as an official inspection station. Additional signs may be obtained by an official inspection station for a fee equal to the cost to the state. Each inspection station shall also be supplied with one or more posters which must be displayed in a conspicuous location at the place of inspection and which informs the public that required repairs or corrections need not be made at the inspection station.

2. No person operating an official inspection station under the provisions of sections 307.350 to 307.390 may issue a certificate of inspection and approval for any vehicle except upon an official form furnished by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol for that purpose and only after inspecting the vehicle and determining that its brakes, lighting equipment, signaling devices, steering mechanisms, horns, mirrors, windshield wipers, tires, wheels, exhaust system, glazing, air pollution control devices, fuel tank and any other safety equipment as required by the state are in proper condition and adjustment to be operated upon the public highways of this state with safety to the driver or operator, other occupants therein, as well as other persons and property upon the highways, as provided by sections 307.350 to 307.390 and the regulations prescribed by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol. No person operating an official inspection station shall furnish, loan, give or sell a certificate of inspection and approval to any other person except those entitled to receive it under provisions of sections 307.350 to 307.390. No person shall have in his possession any certificate of inspection and approval and/or inspection sticker with knowledge that the certificate and/or inspection sticker has been illegally purchased, stolen or counterfeited.

3. The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol may require officially designated stations to furnish reports upon forms furnished by him for that purpose as he considers reasonably necessary for the proper and efficient administration of sections 307.350 to 307.390.

4. If, upon inspection, defects or unsafe conditions are found, the owner may correct them himself or shall have them corrected at any place of his own choice within fifteen days after the defect or unsafe condition is found, and shall have the right to remove the vehicle to such place for correction, but before the vehicle is operated thereafter upon the public highways of this state, a certificate of inspection and approval must be obtained. The inspecting personnel of the official inspection station must inform the owner that he need not have the corrections made at the inspection station.

5. A fee, not to exceed [seven] fourteen dollars, as determined by each official inspection station, may be charged by an official inspection station for each official inspection including the issuance of the certificate of inspection and approval, sticker, seal or other device and a total fee, not to exceed six dollars, as determined by each official inspection station, may be charged for an official inspection of a trailer or motorcycle, which shall include the issuance of the certificate of inspection and approval, sticker, seal or other device. Such fee shall be conspicuously posted on the premises of each such official inspection station. No owner shall be charged an additional inspection fee upon having corrected defects or unsafe conditions found in an inspection completed within the previous ten consecutive days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, if such follow-up inspection is made by the station making the initial inspection. Every inspection for which a fee is charged shall be a complete inspection, and upon completion of the inspection, if any defects are found the owner of the vehicle shall be furnished a list of the defects and a receipt for the fee paid for the inspection. If the owner of a vehicle decides to have any necessary repairs or corrections made at the official inspection station, he shall be furnished a written estimate of the cost of such repairs before such repairs or corrections are made by the official inspection station. The written estimate shall have plainly written upon it that the owner understands that he need not have the corrections made by the official inspection station and shall have a signature line for the owner. The owner must sign below the statement on the signature line before any repairs are made.

6. Certificates of inspection and approval, sticker, seal or other device shall be purchased by the official inspection stations from the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol. The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol shall collect a fee of seventy-five cents for each certificate of inspection, sticker, seal or other device issued to the official inspection stations, except that no charge shall be made for certificates of inspection, sticker, seal or other device issued to official inspection stations operated by governmental entities. All fees collected shall be deposited in the state treasury with fifty cents of each fee collected credited to the state highway fund and, for the purpose of administering and enforcing the state motor vehicle laws and traffic regulations, twenty-five cents credited to the "Highway Patrol Inspection Fund" which is hereby created. The moneys collected and deposited in the highway patrol inspection fund shall be expended subject to appropriations by the general assembly for the administration and enforcement of sections 307.350 to 307.390 by the Missouri state highway patrol. The unexpended balance in the fund at the end of each biennium exceeding the amount of the appropriations from the fund for the first two fiscal years shall be transferred to the state road fund, and the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, relating to the transfer of funds to the general revenue fund at the end of the biennium, shall not apply to the fund.

7. The owner or operator of any inspection station who discontinues operation during the period that a station permit is valid or whose station permit is suspended or revoked shall return all official signs and posters and any current unused inspection stickers, seals or other devices to the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol and shall receive a full refund on request except for official signs and posters, provided the request is made during the calendar year or within sixty days thereafter in the manner prescribed by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol. Stations which have a valid permit shall exchange unused previous year issue inspection stickers and/or decals for an identical number of current year issue, provided the unused stickers and/or decals are submitted for exchange not later than April thirtieth of the current calendar year, in the manner prescribed by the superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol.

PART II

307.366. 1. This enactment of the emissions inspection program is a mandate of the United States Congress pursuant to the federal Clean Air Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 7401, et seq. In any city not within a county, any county of the first classification having a population of over nine hundred thousand inhabitants according to the most recent decennial census, any county of the first classification with a charter form of government and a population of not more than two hundred twenty thousand inhabitants and not less than two hundred thousand inhabitants according to the most recent decennial census, any county of the first classification without a charter form of government with a population of not more than one hundred eighty thousand inhabitants and not less than one hundred seventy thousand inhabitants according to the most recent decennial census and any county of the first classification without a charter form of government with a population of not more than eighty-two thousand inhabitants and not less than eighty thousand inhabitants according to the most recent decennial census, [as a part of the motor vehicle inspection procedure required by sections 307.350 to 307.390,] certain motor vehicles shall be tested to determine that the emissions system is functioning within the emission standards as specified by the Missouri air conservation commission and as required to attain the national health standards for air quality. The motor vehicles to be tested shall be all vehicles except those specifically exempted pursuant to subdivisions (1) to (3) of subsection 1 of section 307.350 and those exempted pursuant to this section. Motor vehicles shall have their emission systems tested annually and where applicable, the vehicles shall be tested as part of the motor vehicle safety inspection procedure required by sections 307.350 to 307.390.

2. The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(1) Motor vehicles with a manufacturer's gross vehicle weight rating in excess of eight thousand five hundred pounds;

(2) Motorcycles and motortricycles;

(3) Model year vehicles prior to 1971;

(4) School buses;

(5) Diesel-powered vehicles;

(6) Motor vehicles registered in the area covered by this section but which are based and operated exclusively in an area of this state not subject to the provisions of this section if the owner of such vehicle presents to the director a sworn affidavit that the vehicle will be based and operated outside the covered area; and

(7) New motor vehicles not previously titled or registered prior to the initial motor vehicle registration or the next succeeding registration which is required by law.

Each official inspection station which conducts safety or emissions inspections in a city or county referred to in subsection 1 of this section shall indicate the gross vehicle weight rating of the motor vehicle on the safety inspection certificate if the vehicle is exempt from the emissions inspection pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection.

3. In addition to the fee authorized by subsection 5 of section 307.365, a fee, not to exceed eight dollars and fifty cents for inspections conducted prior to January 1, 1993, and not to exceed ten dollars and fifty cents for inspections conducted thereafter, as determined by each official safety and emissions inspection station located in any city or county described in subsection 1 of this section, may be charged for an automobile emissions and air pollution control inspection in order to attain the national health standards for air quality. Such fee shall be conspicuously posted on the premises of each such inspection station. The official safety and emissions inspection station shall issue a certificate of inspection and an approval sticker or seal certifying the emissions system is functioning properly. The certificate or approval issued shall bear the legend: "This cost is mandated by your United States Congress." No owner shall be charged an additional fee after having corrected defects or unsafe conditions in the automobile's emissions and air pollution control system if the reinspection is completed within twenty consecutive days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, and if such follow-up inspection is made by the station making the initial inspection.

4. The air conservation commission shall establish, by rule, a waiver amount which may be lower for older model vehicles and which shall be no greater than seventy-five dollars for model year vehicles prior to 1981 and no greater than two hundred dollars for model year vehicles of 1981 and all subsequent model years.

5. An owner whose vehicle fails upon reinspection to meet the emission standards specified by the Missouri air conservation commission shall be issued a certificate of inspection and an approval sticker or seal by the official safety and emissions inspection station that provided the inspection if the vehicle owner furnishes a complete, signed affidavit satisfying the requirements of this subsection and the cost of emissions repairs and adjustments is equal to or greater than the waiver amount established by the air conservation commission pursuant to this section. The air conservation commission shall establish, by rule, a form and a procedure for verifying that repair and adjustment was performed on a failing vehicle prior to the granting of a waiver and approval. The waiver form established pursuant to this subsection shall be an affidavit requiring:

(1) A statement signed by the repairer that the specified work was done and stating the itemized charges for the work; and

(2) A statement signed by the inspector that an inspection of the vehicle verified, to the extent practical, that the specified work was done.

6. The department of revenue shall require evidence of the inspection and approval required by this section in issuing the motor vehicle annual registration in conformity with the procedure required by sections 307.350 to 307.370.

7. Each safety and emissions inspection station located in any city or county described in subsection 1 of this section shall purchase from the highway patrol sufficient forms and stickers or other devices to evidence approval of the motor vehicle's emissions control system. In addition, safety and emissions inspection stations may be required to purchase forms for use in automated analyzers from outside vendors of the inspection station's choice. The forms must comply with state regulations.

8. In addition to the fee collected by the superintendent pursuant to subsection 5 of section 307.365, the highway patrol shall collect a fee of seventy-five cents for each automobile emissions certificate issued to the applicable official safety and emissions inspection stations, except that no charge shall be made for certificates of inspection issued to official safety and emissions inspection stations operated by governmental entities. All fees collected by the superintendent pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the "Missouri Air Pollution Control Fund", which is hereby created.

9. The moneys collected and deposited in the Missouri air pollution control fund pursuant to this section shall be allocated on an equal basis to the Missouri state highway patrol and the Missouri department of natural resources, air pollution control program, and shall be expended subject to appropriation by the general assembly for the administration and enforcement of sections 307.350 to 307.390. The unexpended balance in the fund at the end of each appropriation period shall not be transferred to the general revenue fund, except as directed by the general assembly by appropriation, and the provisions of section 33.080, RSMo, relating to the transfer of funds to the general revenue fund at the end of the biennium, shall not apply to this fund. The moneys in the fund shall be invested by the treasurer as provided by law, and the interest shall be credited to the fund.

10. The superintendent of the Missouri state highway patrol shall issue such rules and regulations as are necessary to determine whether a motor vehicle's emissions control system is operating as required by subsection 1 of this section, and the superintendent and the state highways and transportation commission shall use their best efforts to seek federal funds from which reimbursement grants may be made to those official inspection stations which acquire and use the necessary testing equipment which will be required to perform the tests required by the provisions of this section.

11. The provisions of this section shall not apply in any county for any time period during which the air conservation commission has established a motor vehicle emissions inspection program pursuant to sections 643.300 to 643.355, RSMo, for such county.

12. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 307.390, violation of this section shall be deemed a class C misdemeanor."; and

If imposed by a municipality, such surcharges shall be collected by the clerk of the municipal court responsible for collecting court costs and fines and shall be transmitted monthly to the treasurer of the municipality where the violation occurred in cases of violations of municipal ordinances. If imposed by a county, such surcharges shall be collected and disbursed as provided in sections 488.010 to 488.020, RSMo. 2. Each county and municipality shall use all funds received under this section only to pay for the training required as provided in sections 590.100 to 590.180 or for the training of county coroners and their deputies. No county or municipality shall retain more than one thousand five hundred dollars of such funds for each certified law enforcement officer, candidate for certification employed by that agency or a coroner and the coroner's deputies. Any excess funds shall be transmitted quarterly to the general revenue fund of the county or municipality treasury which assessed the costs.";

7. This section shall become effective only upon the expiration of twenty calendar days following the rescission of the governor's executive order number 97-97.

536.020. 1. In addition to seeking information by other methods, an agency may solicit comments from the public on the subject matter of a rule that the agency is considering proposing. The agency may file a notice of the rule under consideration as a proposed rulemaking with the secretary of state for publication in the Missouri Register as soon as practicable after the filing thereof in the secretary's office. The notice may contain the number and the subject matter of the rule as well as a statement indicating where, when, and how persons may comment.

2. Each agency may also appoint committees to comment on the subject matter of a rule that the agency is considering proposing. The membership of those committees must be published at least annually in the Missouri Register.

536.021. 1. No rule shall hereafter be made, amended or rescinded by any state agency unless such agency shall first file with the secretary of state a notice of proposed rulemaking and a subsequent final order of rulemaking, both of which shall be published in the Missouri Register by the secretary of state as soon as practicable after the filing thereof in [his] that office; except that a notice of proposed rulemaking is not required for the establishment of hunting or fishing seasons and limits or for the establishment of state program plans required under federal education acts or regulations. The secretary of state shall not publish any proposed rulemaking or final order of rulemaking that has not been filed with the joint committee on administrative rules in accordance with section 536.024.

2. A notice of proposed rulemaking shall contain:

(1) An explanation of any new rule or any change in an existing rule, and the reasons therefor;

(2) The legal authority pursuant to which the rule is proposed to be made;

(3) The text of the entire rule proposed to be made or the entire text of any affected section or subsection of a rule which is proposed to be amended, with all new matter underlined or printed in boldface type and with all deleted matter placed in brackets, except that when a proposed rule consists of material so extensive that the publication thereof would be unduly cumbersome or expensive, the secretary of state need publish only a summary and description of the substance of the rule so long as a complete copy of the rule is made immediately available to any interested person upon application to the adopting state agency at a cost not to exceed the actual cost of reproduction. A proposed rule may incorporate by reference only if the material so incorporated is retained at the headquarters of the state agency and made available to any interested person at a cost not to exceed the actual cost of the reproduction of a copy. When a proposed amendment is to correct a typographical or printing error, or merely to make a technical change not affecting substantive matters, the amendment may be described in general terms without reprinting the entire rule, section or subsection;

(4) The number and general subject matter of any rule proposed to be rescinded;

(5) Notice that anyone may file a statement in support of or in opposition to the proposed rulemaking at a specified place and within a specified time not less than thirty days after publication of the notice of proposed rulemaking in the Missouri Register;

(6) Notice of the time and place of a hearing on the proposed rulemaking if a hearing is ordered, which hearing shall be not less than thirty days after publication of the notice of proposed rulemaking in the Missouri Register; or a statement that no hearing has been ordered if such is the case.

3. Any state agency issuing a notice of proposed rulemaking may order a hearing thereon, but no such hearing shall be necessary unless otherwise required by law.

4. Any state agency which has issued in the Missouri Register a notice of proposed rulemaking to be made without a hearing, but which thereafter concludes that a hearing is desirable, shall withdraw the earlier notice and file a new notice of proposed rulemaking which fully complies with the provisions of subdivision (6) of subsection 2 of this section, and the state agency shall not schedule the hearing for a time less than thirty days following the publication of the new notice.

5. Within ninety days after the expiration of the time for filing statements in support of or in opposition to the proposed rulemaking, or within ninety days after the hearing on such proposed rulemaking if a hearing is held thereon, the state agency proposing the rule shall file with the secretary of state [an] a final order of rulemaking either adopting the proposed rule, with or without further changes, or withdrawing the proposed rule, which order shall be published in the Missouri Register. Such ninety days shall be tolled for any rule held under abeyance pursuant to an executive order. If the agency fails to file the final order of rulemaking with the secretary of state within the time period specified within this subsection, the proposed rule shall lapse. The order of rulemaking shall contain:

(1) Reference to the date and page or pages where the notice of proposed rulemaking was published in the Missouri Register;

(2) An explanation of any change between the text of the rule as contained in the notice of proposed rulemaking and the text of the rule as finally adopted, together with the reason for any such change;

(3) The full text of any section or subsection of the rule as adopted which has been changed from that contained in the notice of proposed rulemaking;

(4) A brief summary of the general nature and extent of comments submitted in support of or in opposition to the proposed rule and a concise summary of the testimony presented at the hearing, if any, held in connection with said rulemaking, together with a concise summary of the state agency's findings with respect to the merits of any such testimony or comments which are opposed in whole or in part to the proposed rule.

6. Except as provided [in subsection 4 of section 536.023 and] in section 536.025, any rule, or amendment or rescission thereof, made after January 1, 1976, shall be void unless made in accordance with the provisions of this section.

7. Except as provided in subsection 1 of this section, all rules shall be published in full in the Missouri code of state regulations. No rule, except an emergency rule, may become effective prior to the thirtieth day after the date of publication of the revision to the Missouri code of state regulations. The secretary of state shall distribute revisions of the Missouri code of state regulations to all subscribers of the Missouri code of state regulations on or before the date of publication of such revision. The publication date of each rule shall be printed below the rule in the Missouri code of state regulations, provided further, that rules pertaining to changes in hunting or fishing seasons and limits that must comply with federal requirements or that are necessary because of documented changes in fish and game populations may become effective no earlier than on the tenth day after the filing of the order of rulemaking.

8. Effective September 1, 1990, if it is found in a contested case by an administrative or judicial fact finder that a state agency's action was based upon a statement of general applicability which should have been promulgated as a rule, as required by sections 536.010 to 536.050, and that agency was put on notice of such deficiency prior to the administrative or judicial hearing on such matter, then the administrative or judicial fact finder shall award the prevailing nonstate agency party its reasonable attorney's fees incurred prior to the award, not to exceed the amount in controversy in the original action. This award shall constitute a reviewable order. If a state agency in a contested case grants the relief sought by the nonstate party prior to a finding by an administrative or judicial fact finder that the agency's action was based on a statement of general applicability which should have been promulgated as a rule, but was not, then the affected party may bring an action in the circuit court of Cole County for [his] such party's reasonable attorney's fees incurred prior to the relief being granted, not to exceed the amount in controversy in the original action.

9. The actions authorized by subsection 8 of this section shall not apply to the department of revenue if that department implements the authorization hereby granted to the director or [his] the director's duly authorized agents to issue letter rulings which shall bind [him or his] the director or such agents and their successors for a minimum of three years, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in properly published regulations. An unfavorable letter ruling shall not bind the applicant and shall not be appealable to any forum. Subject to appropriations, letter rulings shall be published periodically with information identifying the taxpayer deleted. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "letter ruling" means a written interpretation of law by the director to a specific set of facts provided by a nonstate party.

536.022. 1. If any rule or portion of a rule of a state agency is suspended or terminated by action of [the general assembly,] the governor, a court or other authority, the state agency shall immediately file a notice of such action with the secretary of state.

2. The notice, in a format for publication designed by the secretary of state, shall contain the title and number of the rule; shall describe briefly the action taken with regard to the rule and the parties affected by the suspension or termination; shall state the effective date of the suspension or termination; shall state the duration of the suspension; and shall contain such other information deemed necessary by the secretary of state to provide adequate public information.

3. If any action has the effect of changing the information in the initial notice, the state agency shall immediately file a new notice with the secretary of state in the same manner as the original notice.

4. Notices shall be printed by the secretary of state in the Missouri Register as soon as practicable. The secretary of state shall insert in the code of state regulations material regarding the suspension or termination of rules, and [he] the secretary of state may remove rules which have terminated.

536.023. 1. The secretary of state shall prescribe, in writing, uniform procedures for the numbering, indexing, form and publication of all rules, notices of rulemaking and orders of rulemaking. Copies of the procedures [shall be furnished by the secretary of state to each state agency on or before January 1, 1976, and copies thereof] shall be permanently maintained in the office of the secretary of state and shall be available for public inspection at all reasonable times.

2. No rule, notice of proposed rulemaking or final order of rulemaking shall be accepted for filing with the secretary of state unless it conforms to said uniform procedures.

3. Each state agency shall adopt as a rule a description of its organization and general courses and methods of its operation and the methods and procedures whereby the public may obtain information or make submissions or requests. Substantial changes in any matter covered by the foregoing description shall be made only in accordance with the procedures set forth in sections 536.021 or 536.025.

[4. All rules on file with the secretary of state upon January 1, 1976, which do not conform to said uniform procedures, shall be rewritten so as to conform thereto and shall be refiled with the secretary of state not later than ninety days after January 1, 1976, and no rule shall be promulgated, amended or rescinded during said ninety-day period except pursuant to section 536.025. The original rules shall remain in effect until rewritten and refiled, and the rewritten rules shall become effective immediately upon refiling without following the provisions of section 536.021; provided, however, that any rule which is not so rewritten and refiled within ninety days after January 1, 1976, shall then lapse and be of no further force and effect unless and until it shall be promulgated in accordance with the provisions of section 536.021.]

536.024. 1. When the general assembly authorizes any state agency to adopt administrative rules or regulations pursuant to this section, the granting of such rulemaking authority and the validity of such rules and regulations is contingent upon the agency complying with the provisions of this section in promulgating such rules after June 3, 1994.

2. [No rule or portion of a rule promulgated under the authority of any provision of Missouri statutes shall become effective until it has been approved by the joint committee on administrative rules in accordance with the procedures provided herein, and the delegation of the legislative authority to enact law by the adoption of such rules is dependent upon the power of the joint committee on administrative rules to review and suspend rules pending ratification by the senate and the house of representatives as provided herein.

3.] Upon filing any proposed rule with the secretary of state, the filing agency shall concurrently submit such proposed rule to the joint committee on administrative rules, which may hold hearings upon any proposed rule or portion thereof at any time.

[4.] 3. A final order of rulemaking shall not be filed with the secretary of state until thirty days after such final order of rulemaking has been received by the committee. The committee may hold one or more hearings upon such final order of rulemaking during the thirty-day period. [If the committee does not disapprove such order of rulemaking within the thirty-day period, the filing agency may file such order of rulemaking with the secretary of state and the order of rulemaking shall be deemed approved.

5. The committee may, by majority vote of the members, suspend the order of rulemaking or portion thereof by action taken prior to the filing of the final order of rulemaking only for one or more of the following grounds:

(1) An absence of statutory authority for the proposed rule;

(2) An emergency relating to public health, safety or welfare;

(3) The proposed rule is in conflict with state law;

(4) A substantial change in circumstance since enactment of the law upon which the proposed rule is based;

(5) The proposed rule is arbitrary and capricious.

6. If the committee disapproves any rule or portion thereof, the filing agency shall not file such disapproved portion of any rule with the secretary of state and the secretary of state shall not publish in the Missouri Register any final order of rulemaking containing the disapproved portion.

7. If the committee disapproves any rule or portion thereof, the committee shall report its findings to the senate and the house of representatives. No rule or portion thereof disapproved by the committee shall take effect so long as the senate and the house of representatives ratify the act of the joint committee by resolution adopted in each house within thirty legislative days after such rule or portion thereof has been disapproved by the joint committee.

8. Upon adoption of a rule as provided herein, any such rule or portion thereof may be suspended or revoked by the general assembly either by bill or, pursuant to section 8, article IV of the constitution, by concurrent resolution upon recommendation of the joint committee on administrative rules. The committee shall be authorized to hold hearings and make recommendations pursuant to the provisions of section 536.037. The secretary of state shall publish in the Missouri Register, as soon as practicable, notice of the suspension or revocation.

9.] 4. The committee may file with the secretary of state any comments that the committee has concerning a proposed or final order of rulemaking. Such comments shall be published in the Missouri Register.

5. The committee may refer comments concerning such rule to the appropriations and budget committee of the house of representatives and the appropriations committee of the senate for further action.

6. The provisions of this section shall not apply to rules promulgated by the public service commission and the labor and industrial relations commission.

536.025. 1. A rule may be made, amended or rescinded by a state agency without following the provisions of section 536.021 [and subsection 5 of section 536.027], only if the state agency:

(1) Finds that an immediate danger to the public health, safety or welfare requires emergency action or that the rule is necessary to preserve a compelling governmental interest;

(2) Follows procedures best calculated to assure fairness to all interested persons and parties under the circumstances;

(3) Follows procedures which comply with the protections extended by the Missouri and United States Constitutions;

(4) Limits the scope of such rule to the circumstances creating an emergency and requiring emergency procedure; and

(5) At the time of or prior to the adoption of such rule files with the secretary of state and the joint committee on administrative rules the text of the rule together with the specific facts, reasons, and findings which support its conclusion that there is an immediate danger to the public health, safety or welfare or that the rule is necessary to preserve a compelling governmental interest which can be met only through the adoption of such rule and its reasons for concluding that the procedure employed is fair to all interested persons and parties under the circumstances.

2. Material filed with the secretary of state and the joint committee on administrative rules under the provisions of subdivision (5) of subsection 1 of this section shall be published in the Missouri Register by the secretary of state as soon as practicable after the filing thereof. Any [emergency] rule promulgated pursuant to this section shall be reviewed by the secretary of state to determine compliance with the requirements for its publication and adoption established in this section, and in the event that the secretary of state determines that such proposed material does not meet those requirements, the secretary of state shall not publish the [emergency] rule. The secretary of state shall inform the agency of its determination, and offer the agency a chance to either withdraw the emergency rule or to have the emergency rule published as a proposed rule.

3. [If the joint committee disapproves any emergency rule or portion thereof, the committee shall report its findings to the senate and the house of representatives. No emergency rule or portion thereof disapproved by the committee shall take effect unless the senate and the house of representatives fail to ratify the action of the joint committee by resolution adopted in each house within thirty legislative days after such rule or portion thereof has been disapproved by the joint committee.

4.] Rules adopted under the provisions of this section shall be known as "emergency rules" and shall, along with the findings and conclusions of the state agency in support of its employment of emergency procedures, be judicially reviewable under section 536.050 or other appropriate form of judicial review. The secretary of state and any employee thereof, acting in the scope of employment, shall be immune from suit in actions regarding the adoption of rules pursuant to this section.

[5.] 4. A rule adopted under the provisions of this section shall clearly state the interval during which it will be in effect [and which, in no case, may be for a period exceeding one hundred eighty days]. Emergency rules shall not be in effect for a period exceeding one hundred eighty calendar days or thirty legislative days, whichever period is longer. For the purposes of this section, a "legislative day" is each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday beginning the first Wednesday after the first Monday in January and ending the first Friday after the second Monday in May, regardless of whether the legislature meets.

[6.] 5. A rule adopted under the provisions of this section shall not be renewable, although a state agency may, at any time, adopt an identical rule under normal rulemaking procedures.

[7.] 6. A rule adopted under the provisions of this section may be effective not less than ten days after the filing thereof in the office of the secretary of state, or at such later date as may be specified in the rule, and may be terminated at any time by the state agency by filing an order with the secretary of state fixing the date of such termination, which order shall be published by the secretary of state in the Missouri Register as soon as practicable after the filing thereof.

[8.] 7. Effective September 1, 1994, if it is found in a contested case by an administrative or judicial fact finder that a state agency's rule should not have been promulgated as an emergency rule as provided by this section, but was in fact promulgated as an emergency rule pursuant to this section, then the administrative or judicial fact finder shall award the [prevailing] party who prevails, as defined in section 536.019, its reasonable [attorney's fees incurred prior to the award, not to exceed the amount in controversy, if any, in the original action] fees and expenses, as defined in section 536.019. This award shall constitute a reviewable order. If a state agency in a contested case grants the relief sought by the party prior to a finding by an administrative or judicial fact finder that the state agency's action was based on a statement of general applicability which should not have been promulgated as an emergency rule, but was in fact promulgated as an emergency rule pursuant to this section, then the affected party may bring an action in circuit court of Cole County for his reasonable [attorney's fees incurred prior to the relief being granted, not to exceed the amount in controversy in the original action] fees and expenses, as defined in section 536.019.

[536.028. 1. The delegation of authority to any state agency to propose to the general assembly rules as provided under this section is contingent upon the agency complying with the provisions of this section and this delegation of legislative power to the agency to propose an order of rulemaking containing a rule or portion thereof that has the effect of substantive law, other than a rule relating to the agency's organization and internal management, is contingent and dependent upon the power of the general assembly to review such proposed order of rulemaking, to delay the effective date of such proposed order of rulemaking until the expiration of at least thirty legislative days of a regular session after such order is filed with the general assembly and the secretary of state, and to disapprove and annul any rule or portion thereof contained in such order of rulemaking.

2. No rule or portion of a rule that has the effect of substantive law shall become effective until the order of rulemaking, in which such rule or portion thereof is contained, has been reviewed by the general assembly in accordance with the procedures provided herein and the agency's authority to propose an order of rulemaking is dependent upon the power of the general assembly to disapprove and annul any such proposed rule or portion thereof as provided herein.

3. In order for the general assembly to have an effective opportunity to be advised of rules proposed by any state agency under the authority of this section, an agency may propose a rule by complying with the procedures provided in section 536.021, except that the notice of proposed rulemaking shall first be filed with the general assembly by providing a copy thereof to the joint committee on administrative rules which may hold hearings upon any proposed rule or portion thereof at any time. The agency shall cooperate with the joint committee on administrative rules by providing any witnesses, documents or information within the control of the agency as may be requested.

4. In order to propose an order of rulemaking to the general assembly, the agency shall comply with the provisions of section 536.021, except that the agency may file a proposed order of rulemaking with the secretary of state only by first filing such proposed order with the general assembly by providing a copy thereof to the secretary of the senate and the clerk of the house of representatives. The president pro tem of the senate shall direct that a copy of the proposed order of rulemaking be delivered to the joint committee on administrative rules which may hold hearings thereon. The agency shall cooperate with the committee by providing any witnesses, documents or information within the control of the agency as may be requested.

5. Such proposed order of rulemaking shall not become effective prior to the expiration of thirty legislative days of a regular session after such order is filed with the secretary of state and the general assembly.

6. The committee may, by majority vote of its members, recommend that the general assembly disapprove and annul any rule or portion thereof contained in an order of rulemaking after hearings thereon and, upon a finding that such rule or portion thereof should be disapproved and annulled upon the following grounds:

(1) Such rule is substantive in nature in that it creates rights or liabilities or provides for sanctions as to any person, corporation or other legal entity; and

(2) Such rule or portion thereof is not in the public interest or is not authorized by the general assembly for one or more of the following grounds:

(a) An absence of statutory authority for the proposed rule;

(b) The proposed rule is in conflict with state law;

(c) Such proposed rule is likely to substantially endanger the public health, safety or welfare;

(d) The rule exceeds the purpose, or is more restrictive than is necessary to carry out the purpose, of the statute granting rulemaking authority;

(e) A substantial change in circumstance has occurred since enactment of the law upon which the proposed rule is based as to result in a conflict between the purpose of the law and the proposed rule, or as to create a substantial danger to public health and welfare;

(f) The proposed rule is so arbitrary and capricious as to create such substantial inequity as to be unreasonably burdensome on persons affected.

7. Any recommendation or report issued by the committee pursuant to subsection 6 of this section shall be admissible as evidence in any judicial proceeding and entitled to judicial notice without further proof.

8. The general assembly may adopt a concurrent resolution in accordance with the provisions of article IV, section 8 of the Missouri constitution to disapprove and annul any rule or portion thereof upon one or more of the grounds stated in subsection 6 of this section.

9. Any rule or portion thereof not disapproved within thirty legislative days of a regular session pursuant to subsection 8 of this section shall be deemed approved by the general assembly and the secretary of state may publish such order of rulemaking as soon as practicable upon the expiration of thirty legislative days of a regular session after the order of rulemaking was filed with the secretary of state and the general assembly.

10. Upon adoption of such concurrent resolution as provided in subsection 8 of this section, the secretary of state shall not publish the order of rulemaking until the expiration of time necessary for such resolution to be signed by the governor, or vetoed and subsequently acted upon by the general assembly pursuant to article III, section 32 of the Missouri Constitution. If such concurrent resolution is adopted and signed by the governor or reconsidered pursuant to article III, section 32, the secretary of state shall publish in the Missouri Register, as soon as practicable, the order of rulemaking along with notice of the proposed rules or portions thereof which are disapproved and annulled by the general assembly.

11. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1.140, RSMo, the provisions of this section are nonseverable and the delegation of legislative authority to an agency to propose orders of rulemaking is essentially dependent upon the powers vested with the general assembly as provided herein. If any of the powers vested with the general assembly to review, to delay the effective date or to disapprove and annul a rule or portion of a rule contained in an order of rulemaking, are held unconstitutional or invalid, the purported grant of rulemaking authority and any rule so proposed and contained in the order of rulemaking pursuant thereto shall be invalid and void.

12. Nothing in this section shall prevent the general assembly from adopting by bill within thirty legislative days of a regular session the rules or portions thereof, or as the same may be amended, as contained in a proposed order of rulemaking. In that event, the proposed order of rulemaking shall have been superseded and any rule proposed therein shall be void and only such rules adopted by the general assembly and submitted to the governor may become effective. Rules so adopted shall be published by the secretary of state as soon as practicable. In that event, the secretary of state shall not publish the proposed order of rulemaking and such proposed order of rulemaking shall be invalid and void.

13. Upon adoption of any rule now in effect or hereafter promulgated, any such rule or portion thereof may be revoked by the general assembly either by bill, or by concurrent resolution pursuant to article IV, section 8 of the constitution on recommendation of the committee on administrative rules upon the grounds listed in subsection 6 of this section. The secretary of state shall publish in the Missouri Register, as soon as practicable, notice of the revocation.]

536.031. 1. There is established a publication to be known as the "Code of State Regulations", which shall be published by the secretary of state as soon as practicable after ninety days following January 1, 1976, and may be republished from time to time thereafter as determined by the secretary of state.

2. The code of state regulations shall contain the full text of all rules of state agencies in force and effect upon the effective date of the first publication thereof, and effective September 1, 1990, it shall be revised no less frequently than monthly thereafter so as to include all rules of state agencies subsequently made, amended or rescinded and the full text of any law enacted pursuant to section 21.800, RSMo. The code may also include citations, references, or annotations, prepared by the state agency adopting the rule or by the secretary of state, to any intraagency ruling, attorney general's opinion, determination, decisions, order, or other action of the administrative hearing commission, or any determination, decision, order, or other action of a court interpreting, applying, discussing, distinguishing, or otherwise affecting any rule published in the code.

3. The code of state regulations shall be published in looseleaf form in one or more volumes and with an appropriate index and cover, and revisions in the text and index may be made by printing additional pages for insertion in the looseleaf cover.

4. The secretary of state may omit from the code of state regulations such rules and such material incorporated by reference in any rule the publication of which would be unduly cumbersome or expensive, provided that the full text of such rule or the full text of the material incorporated by reference is made available to any interested person at both the office of the secretary of state and the office of the adopting state agency, and copies thereof made available to any interested party at a cost not to exceed the actual cost of copy reproduction.

5. The courts of this state shall take judicial notice, without proof, of the contents of the code of state regulations.

536.046. Each agency may maintain a public rulemaking docket. The rulemaking docket may contain a listing of the precise subject matter of each rule that the agency is considering proposing. The docket may also contain the name and address of agency personnel with whom persons may communicate with respect to the matter and an indication of the present status within the agency of the rule the agency is considering proposing. The secretary of state may publish such rulemaking dockets.

536.050. 1. The power of the courts of this state to render declaratory judgments shall extend to declaratory judgments respecting the validity of rules, or of threatened applications thereof, and such suits may be maintained against agencies whether or not the plaintiff has first requested the agency to pass upon the question presented. The venue of such suits against agencies shall, at the option of the plaintiff, be in the circuit court of Cole County, or in the county of the plaintiff's residence, or if the plaintiff is a corporation, domestic or foreign, having a registered office or business office in this state, in the county of such registered office or business office. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as a limitation on the declaratory or other relief which the courts might grant in the absence of this section.

2. Any person bringing an action under subsection 1 of this section shall not be required to exhaust any administrative remedy if the court determines that:

(1) The administrative agency has no authority to grant the relief sought or the administrative remedy is otherwise inadequate; or

(2) The only issue presented for adjudication is a constitutional issue or other question of law; or

(3) Requiring the person to exhaust any administrative remedy would result in undue prejudice because the person may suffer irreparable harm if unable to secure immediate judicial consideration of the claim. Provided, however, that the provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any matter covered by chapters 288, 302, and 303, RSMo.

3. A party who prevails in an action brought pursuant to subsection 1 of this section shall be awarded reasonable fees and expenses, as defined in section 536.085, incurred by that party in the action.

4. A party seeking an award of fees and other expenses shall, within thirty days of a final disposition of an action brought pursuant to subsection 1 of this section, submit to the court which rendered the final disposition or judgment an application which shows that the party is a prevailing party and is eligible to receive an award pursuant to this section, and the amount sought, including an itemized statement from any attorney or expert witness representing or appearing in behalf of the party stating the actual time expended and the rate at which fees and other expenses are computed.

5. A prevailing party in an agency proceeding shall submit an application for fees and expenses to the court before which the party prevailed. The filing of an application shall not stay the time for appealing the merits of a case. When the state appeals the underlying merits of an adversary proceeding, no decision on the application for fees and other expenses in connection with that adversary proceeding shall be made pursuant to this section until a final and unreviewable decision is rendered by the court on the appeal or until the underlying merits of the case have been finally determined pursuant to the appeal.

6. The court may either reduce the amount to be awarded or deny any award, to the extent that the prevailing party during the course of the proceedings engaged in conduct which unduly and unreasonably protracted the final resolution of the matter in controversy.

7. The decision of a court on the application for reasonable fees and expenses shall be in writing, separate from the judgment or order of the court which determined the prevailing party, and shall include written findings and conclusions and the reason or basis therefor. The decision of a court on the application for fees and other expenses shall be final, subject respectively to appeal or judicial review.

8. If a party or the state is dissatisfied with a determination of fees and other expenses made in an action brought pursuant to subsection 1 of this section, that party or the state may, within the time permitted by law, appeal that order or judgment to the appellate court having jurisdiction to review the merits of that order or judgment. The appellate court's determination shall be based solely on the record made before the court below. The court may modify, reverse or reverse and remand the determination of fees and other expenses if the court finds that the award or failure to make an award of fees and other expenses, or the calculation of the amount of the award, was arbitrary and capricious, was unreasonable, was unsupported by competent and substantial evidence, or was made contrary to law or in excess of the court's jurisdiction. Awards made pursuant to this section shall be payable from amounts appropriated therefor. The state agency against which the award was made shall request an appropriation to pay for the award.

[Section 14. 1. The director may, after notice and hearing, promulgate reasonable rules to carry out the provisions of sections 1 to 11. The director shall have the authority to promulgate rules to accomplish the following purposes:

(1) To regulate the internal affairs of the department of insurance;

(2) To prescribe forms and procedures to be followed in proceedings before the department of insurance; and

(3) To effectuate or aid in the interpretation of any law of this state pertaining to the subject matters of sections 1 to 11.

2. Any rule that has the effect of creating or substantially modifying a legal right, liability, obligation or sanction shall be considered substantive. The director may only promulgate substantive rules on subject matters specifically authorized pursuant to sections 1 to 11 and any substantive rule or portion of a rule shall become effective only as provided pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo, including, but not limited to, section 536.028, after the effective date of this act. All such substantive rules and all substantive rulemaking authority granted pursuant to sections 1 to 11 shall expire on August 31, 1998. Any act by the general assembly that serves to extend or postpone the expiration of any rule or rulemaking authority shall not constitute legislative approval of the rule or authority nor be admissible in any court as evidence of legislative intent. The provisions of this section are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to section 536.028 to review, to delay the effective date or to disapprove and annul a rule, or portion of a rule, are held unconstitutional or invalid, the purported grant of rulemaking authority and any rule so proposed and contained in the order of rulemaking shall be invalid and void.]

Section D. Because immediate action is necessary to properly oversee the laws of this state, section C of this act is deemed necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health, welfare, peace and safety, and is hereby declared to be an emergency act within the meaning of the constitution, and section C of this act shall be in full force and effect upon its passage and approval.".

First Regular Session, 89th General Assembly

SEVENTIETH DAY, Monday, May 12, 1997

Speaker Pro Tem Kreider in the Chair.

Prayer by Father Hugh Behan.

"You number my steps..." (Job. 14:16)

There are 86 steps from the basement to the third floor here, and a further 21 to the fourth floor. I have walked them almost every day that I have been over here this session.

Gracious God, there are some days when the climb of life is so easy, other days leave us huffing and puffing. This session, as all the others, gave us days when we barely notice the effort and some days (or for some issues), when we wonder if we need to stop, or go back and start over with an easier way to get where we want to go.

Guide us with all the patience, self-control and wisdom we need this last week before the special session with all of its uncertainties. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Melanie Lafferty, Cori Breen, Pat Wilmes, Dan Prouhet, Jennifer Degenhardt, Claire Armstrong, Caleb Borland and Christopher Shih.

The Journal of the sixty-ninth day was approved as corrected.
